At midnight delicious refreshments were served with a committee of ladies consisting of Mrs. J. W. McKinley, Miss Chrissie Wood and Mrs. Bert Morgan in charge. The committee in charge of the dance consisted of Murdo McArthur, N. W. Appleyard, S. V. Cox and J. E. Jack. Jack Candow presided at the door.

BAD FALL NEARLY RUINED HIGH GRADE WATCH

Local man, who owns a high grade Hamilton watch had the bad luck to let it have a very bad fall. The case was bent, in fact he expected the watch was ruined. He took it into the repair department of Max Heilbronner, Jeweler, to find out if it was worth repairing or if it would be cheaper to buy a new watch. He is now quite pleased as his watch is repaired and keeping railroad time and although the watch was in very bad shape the charges were quite reasonable.
