GOOD EATS CAFE OPEN TOMORROW

The Good Eats Cafe will throw open its doors on Sunday, August 7 at 12 o'clock noon. No expense has been spared in equipping this cafe second to none in the North. From a standpoint of cleanliness alone, this eating house will appeal to all those who dine out. Fast service is our motto and we welcome constructive criticism.

We are located on Second Avenue, close to the main artery of the city, and just far enough away to be out of the high rent district, which will assist us very materially in our efforts to make this a popular priced restaurant. Combine comfort with civility and join the satisfied crowd that will patronize the new leader in Prince Rupert's Cafe business.

Phone 301 and reserve your box for Sunday's opening dinner. The Good Eats will be open night and day.

ENDORSES HARDING'S DISARMAMENT MESSAGE

The following resolution was passed by the Canadian Council of Agriculture at Ottawa recently:

"The Canadian Council of Agriculture welcomes the action of President Harding in calling an international conference at Washington for the purpose of devising plans for checking the rivalry in armaments, and creating an atmosphere under which nations will entrust their safety, not to armed forces, alliances or balances of power, but to a recognition of mutual dependence, and the cultivation of mutual good-will.

"We feel assured that the Government of Canada will voice the sentiment of the Canadian people if it gives whole-hearted support to this movement for peace, so that from the free soil of America there will go a message that will be received with hope by a world shattered by the late war and without hope if ways are to continue."

The Man in the Moon SAYS—

—ONE thing about living in Prince Rupert is that mosquitoes do not come up on to your own veranda and deliberately bite you.

IF a man were bitten on the veranda, how would he cure it?

THIS disarmament question is having a profound effect on some of the young people of Prince Rupert. They do not like to have to take their arms away, when sitting in the hammock for instance.

IT was the lady who made the tea who put the sip in gossip.

MEN have been getting their hair so short that it looks something like the bristles on the back of a porcupine, and yet some men take exception to a woman bobbing her hair.

A CANDIED opinion is always better than a candid opinion.

NO SPECIAL TRAIN, BUT PARTY PROBABLY WILL VISIT TELKWA

While it now seems certain that there will be no special train to Telkwa, owing to the high cost of the trip, there will very likely be a large party from this city go to Telkwa for the barbecue on the regular passenger train on the previous Saturday and return on Tuesday. The cost of the round trip will not be more than $17, and visitors are assured they will receive a hearty welcome from the people of the Interior.

W. E. Williams, following a report from the secretary of failure to get sufficient encouragement to warrant going ahead with the special, addressed the members of the board on the desirability of paying Telkwa a visit. It is possible that a special car may be put on the regular train to accommodate the local visitors to that point.

THIS FINAL DAY IN VERSE COMPETITION

Good Deal of Effort Given to Winning Prizes Offered by This Paper.

This is the final opportunity for submitting verses in the Daily News verse competition dealing with the subject of outdoor life. Many have taken a good deal of trouble to win the prizes, but there is still a chance. Verses mailed tonight will be eligible. One competitor addressing himself to the Daily News says:

Your competition has been a treat
It's near given me the blues.
But whether I get a prize or not
I'll read the Daily News.

A Sad Story.
I hired a little gas boat
Upon a summer's day
And on a little journey
I went across the Bay.
But ah! so sad a story
Alas the crank shaft broke
And I with efforts weary
Was forced to paddle home.

Salt Lakes.
If ever you want a cheap trip
Go o'er to Salt Lakes for a dip.
When the weather is fine its really sublime,
To spend Sunday away from the dust and the grime.
Just the place to drive dull care away,
And forget all the worries of mind.
At the end of the week you will find it a treat
I have been there myself and I know it is fine.

The Flower Garden.
My aunt's flower garden is so very neat
That to the eye it is a veritable treat
But you bet she has to keep plugging
And everlastingly slugging
And yet it is certainly worth while,
For it adds so much beauty and style.

Prince Rupert, Prince Rupert,
What makes you look so bright?
G, we go to the Salt Lakes
And swim there every night
And you would look as happy,
Contented you would feel
If you knew that when in danger
You could swim like any seal.

Competition Rules
Competitors are reminded that a verse should not exceed ten lines in length, and it should deal with outdoor life of some kind. First prize $5, second $3, third $2.
