PASS THE APPLES

When every pool in Eden was a mirror That unto Eve her dainty charms proclaimed, She went undraped without a single fear.
Thought she had need to be ashamed.

'Twas only when she'd eaten of the apple
That she became inclined to be a prude,
And found that evermore she'd have to grapple With the much-debated problem of the fudge.

Thereafter she devoted her attention, Her time and all her money on her clothes,
And that was the beginning of Convention,
And Modesty as well, I do suppose.

Reactions come about in fashions recent,
Now girls conceal so little from the men,
It would seem, in the name of all that's decent, Someone ought to pass the apples round again. —Exchange.

FUR AUCTION

Average Prices Realized Yesterday Were 30 per cent Advance.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Today was "Fox Day" at the annual spring fur auction in the Masonic Hall here with blue fox easily the star of the proceedings. The quantity offered was small and the quality was such that active bidding drove the average prices 30 per cent above the levels obtained at the winter auction in this city last January. The fresher and better grades of silver fox advanced 25 per cent over winter prices but the black, stale and poor skins showed a decline of that amount. Cross fox also brought good prices but the average figures obtained for it were practically the same as in January.

While foxes brought prices 25 per cent above those paid at the winter sale of the New York Fur Auction Sales Corporation, with all grades of red fox unchanged, gray fox and Australian fox showed declines of 20 and 15 per cent respectively. Kolinsky showed no change.

Musk rats.
The muskrats registered these percentage of increases over the winter auction levels: Brown, 20; black, 10, and southern, 25.

Sales for the two days were about $800,000.

TRADES AND LABOR DISCUSS CITY LIGHT

Says They Think Rates Should Be Reduced—Demand Investigation Police Shooting.

At the regular meeting of the Trades and Labor Council last night the matter of the city light and its profits was taken up and the council was of opinion that a municipal plant making money should be used to save money for the citizens and that cheaper light should be given to the people, believing that if the light was cheaper more would be consumed.

Letters were ordered sent to the city council, provincial police and attorney-general demanding a fuller inquiry into the recent shooting at the city police station and that immediate steps be taken in the matter.

A letter from Colonel C. W.
Peck was read telling of his interview with Mr. Warren while in Winnipeg and thanking the body for a letter of thanks sent him on behalf of the workers at the drydock.

The council ordered that a letter be sent to the school board calling attention to the number of children under fourteen years of age working in local industries.

TOM MIX HERE IN BLOODCURDLING STORY

Ferocity of Hate Between Warring Clans Illustrated in Picture at Westholme.

Kentucky's famous feuds and tragedies form the theme of "The Feud," the new Tom Mix feature at the Westholme Theatre tonight.

In this thrilling photoplay Mix plays the part of Jerk Lynch, son of a feudist family. Jealous, forgetful of the heritage of hate, falls in love with the daughter of the enemy, played by pretty Eva Novak. The feud breaks out with renewed intensity when the love affair is discovered. Jerk's father is shot down before his eyes. Jerk, stung into action, takes his father's revolver and slays the assassin.

Although these scenes verge upon the blood-curdling, they do not exaggerate the ferocity of the warring clans. Many of the Kentucky feuds have been written in American history with letters of blood.

The Hatfield-McCoy feud is perhaps the best known. This miniature war was precipitated by an argument over some hogs.
But it caused the death of scores and brought two states to the verge of war.

RED SOX DANCE WAS COMPLETE SUCCESS

City League Baseball Team Augmented Its Funds for Uniforms and Supplies.

The Red Sox baseball club dance held last night in the St.
Andrew's Hall was a thoroughly enjoyable and financially successful affair. There were about ninety couples in attendance and dancing was kept up from 10 o'clock until nearly three in the morning.

Music was supplied by Arthur's orchestra augmented to seven pieces. The floor was in excellent condition and everything was just right for the complete enjoyment of the dance.
At midnight splendid refreshments were served in the supper room upstairs. R. G. Feizell was master of ceremonies and H. Weber was on the door.
Among those who assisted towards making the event such a success were H. Astori, L. Astori, S. Bazzett-Jones and V. Maxwell.
It is likely that the Red Sox will put on another dance before long. The proceeds are to be devoted to the purchasing of uniforms and other supplies for the ball team.

In view of the movement that is on foot for the enforcement of the Sabbath Observance Act preventing hunting and fishing on Sundays, a petition is being circulated and widely signed in the city praying that this be not made effective. The main reason given is that ordinary persons have no other opportunity but on this day to enjoy the pleasures of the outdoors.

"Raining Pitchforks" is bad enough, but when it comes to "Hailing Street Cars," it's pretty rough weather.
