WAR VETERANS NEW OFFICERS

Association Faced With Problem of Revenue Producing—Result Moderation Bill.

The semi-annual general meeting of the Great War Veterans' Association was last night held in the rooms on Third Ave. and there were about 70 present. An incomplete financial statement submitted by C. V. Exitt, the auditor, showed the finances of the organization to be in a healthy state but the revenue of the club will be seriously affected by the new Moderation Bill which will prohibit the sale of beer at the canteen. This will be one of the first problems with which the new executive will be faced. It is possible that a billiard room may be arranged to provide a new source of revenue in place of the one which will be lost.

Last night a grant of $200 was passed by the association to establish a Great War Veterans' football team in the city league.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing half year:

Honorary President, Lieut.-Col. C. W. Peek, V.C., M.P.
Honorary Vice-President, Capt. J. McGregor, V.C.
President, Ald. J. H. Kelly.
Vice-President, Dr. J. A. West.
Second Vice-President, J. H. Plint.
Secretary-Treasurer, J. M. Campbell.
Executive—J. Mason, Ald. T. Silversides, C. V. Exitt, R. W. Cameron and E. Love.

PYTHIAN SISTERS HAD FINE BASKET SOCIAL

Enjoyable Evening Spent in Castle Hall Last Evening—Cards and Dancing.

The Pythian Sisters, Rupert Temple No. 2, held a very enjoyable basket social in the Castle Hall last evening. There were about 60 persons present for the whist drive and the first prizes were won by H. Blake, score 95, and Mrs. O. Christ, 91. Consolation awards went to Mrs. E. Clapp, 57, and W. H. Sherman, 55.

Following the playing of cards E. A. Woods took the platform and raffled off a number of artistically decorated and amply filled boxes for supper. The prizes for the boxes were won by Mrs. C. Embleton, first; Mrs. George Leek, second, and Mrs. E. A. Woods, third. The judges were Mrs. D. McD. Hunter, Mrs. G. Hansen and S. M. Newton. There was a substantial amount realized from the sale of the boxes.

After supper the time was spent dancing, Paul Aivazoff supplying the Westholme Orchestra for the occasion. George Johnstone was in charge of the whist tables and Paul Aivazoff acted as master of ceremonies for the dances. The committee in charge comprised Mrs. A. H. Bayne, convener, Mrs. George Leek, Mrs. D. McCulloch, George Johnstone and Jack Knight.

Sport Chat

A. M. McDonald, principal of the public schools, saw the third and fourth games of the Stanley Cup hockey series while he was in Vancouver last week. From the performances he saw he is decidedly of the opinion that the Stanley Cup went this year to the best team, the Senators. In the third game, however, Vancouver was at a bad disadvantage. Two of her star players, Alf Skinner and Mickey Mackay, were out of the game, the former in the hospital suffering from injuries in an early game and the latter at home with his little daughter who was at death's door. In their place were "Cyclone" Taylor, whose prime is past, and Desjard, who played rather wild. Ottawa had no difficulty in winning, although Mackay was back on the ice for the third period.

In the fourth game, playing six man hockey, Vancouver was successful. The battle in the first and second periods was one of the most terrific contests ever seen at hockey and both Mackay and Skinner were back in their places. In the first period there was no scoring, in the second there was a goal for each team, but in the last period the Ottawa play seemed to slacken off and Vancouver had no trouble in getting two tallies to the visitors' one. It almost looked as if the Ottawas were not particular about winning at all.

Were the games in the Stanley Cup hockey series fixed? That is a question that is being debated almost everywhere where two or three followers of the puck game are gathered together. Those who think so, base their conviction on the way the games broke between Vancouver and Ottawa in the recent series. In the third and fifth games Ottawa was successful in seven man or Western hockey while Vancouver won the fourth game playing Eastern rules. These sceptics say that Vancouver was allowed to win the latter game by a slackening up by the Senators in the third period. It is true that the public mind is in rather a doubtful mood about professional sport especially since the revelations of last year in American League baseball, but it is a serious allegation to make that games are fixed.

LIKELY ANNOUNCEMENT ABOUT RUPERT STATION WILL BE MADE SHORTLY

G. M. Lang, superintendent of construction for the Canadian National Railways, was in town yesterday afternoon and left on the train for Winnipeg. Mr. Lang, who has been in the south for ten days, had nothing definite to say as to the new station building here, but stated before his departure for the east that there would be probably an announcement in regard to it in a few days.

BUILDING PROPOSED ON SECOND AVENUE

Application has been made at the office of the building inspector by the Union Independent Syndicate, Limited, to erect a two storey frame building on Second Avenue near the Pettullo Block. It is to be leased by C. O. Rowe and used as a shop downstairs and hall above. The proposed building will be 24 by 40 feet and will cost $3,000. C. O. Rowe is making the plans.
