BRINGING UP FATHER

Leading Citizens Joined at Banquet in Honor of Dr. Tolmie and Col. Peck

Hon. Dr. Tolmie, federal minister of agriculture, and Colonel G. W. Peck, V.C., M.P., were the guests of honor at a splendid banquet put on by the Northern B. C. Agricultural and Industrial Association in the St. Regis dining room on Saturday evening. The attendance was full and representative and the affair was highly successful. In spite of the fact that Dr. Tolmie and Colonel Peck sat with many who may oppose the Government in the forthcoming contest, party politics were entirely submerged in the welcoming of the guests.

George H. Munro, president of the Northern B. C. Agricultural Association, was toastmaster and seated at the head table, with him were, Hon. Dr. Tolmie, Col. Peck, Ald. Dybhavn, U. S. Consul E. A. Wakefield, Fred Stork, W. E. Thompson, W. E. Williams and Col. S. P. McMordie.

Among those present were: T. H. Johnson, C. V. Eviitt, Capt. C. B. Formby, D. McD. Hunter, Rev. Dr. H. R. Grant, H. F. Pullen, W. C. Orchard, Capt. E. C. McCroskie, G. A. Woodland, H. T. Willett, J. R. Beatty, J. F. Maguire, W. H. Tobey, C. Belts, G. A. Hunter, G. S. Fitzmaurice, F. M. Crosby, W. T. Raymond, W. Murray, Major S. Johnson, Dr. H. E. Tremayne, Dr. J. P. Cadé, W. E. Fisher, T. B. Hooper, W. G. Henning, M. Gonzales, S. S. Magoffin, J. Hinton, H. Campbell, M. P. McCaffery, D. G. Stewart, Ralph Harrop, G. W. Nickerson, Ald. J. H. Kelly, Ald. M. J. McNeill, J. F. Smith, C. O. Rowe, R. E. Benson, H. F. Wearmouth, J. F. Hutchinson, P. Black, Ald. George Frizzell, Ald. T. Silverides, George D. Tite, G. P. Tinker, Corp. Newham, M. M. Stephens, Dr. L. W. Kergin, Dr. W. T. Kergin, C. H. Elkins, L. M. Fuller, A. J. Galland, S. E. Parker, S. Thompson, H. D. Robinson, E. A. Woods, A. W. Edge, John Bulger, H. Pattinson, F. W. Hart, W. W. Wrathall, S. M. Newton, Ben Self, F. Dibb, G. H. Arnold and D. Thompson.

Fair a Success.

Rev. Dr. H. R. Grant pronounced grace and the Westholme Orchestra was present and gave musical numbers at the opening. The banquet table was a bounteous one and there were all manner of delicacies. After the supper had been done full justice to the toast to the King was proposed and this was followed by a few remarks of welcome by G. H. Munro, president of the Fair Board. He said that it was a pleasure to have such distinguished guests present. He reported the 1924 fair had been a success both from an agricultural standpoint and financially. This affair marked the good ending of a good year. The citizens were beginning to see the benefit that the annual affair was to the city. He appealed for good men to carry on the good work.

W. E. Thompson.

The toast to the city was proposed by W. E. Thompson who said that any person should feel proud to propose such a toast if he had lived here for any length of time. Prince Rupert was the biggest little city in Canada. It was a good town because it was different from so many others. In the city all the classes met and often differences political and class, were shelved in the getting together for the advancement and progress of the city. The community spirit was what made it such a big little city.

Alderman Dybhavn.

Alderman Dybhavn, in the absence of Mayor Rochester, answered the toast. He welcomed Hon. Dr. Tolmie and Col. Peck. Prince Rupert always welcomed cabinet ministers, said Ald. Dybhavn, for it appreciated their interest in coming here. Many visitors from the Dominion Government had already been here. They had made promises and the city was still waiting for some of the promises to come true.

Fred Stork.

The toast to the Province was proposed by Fred Stork. He said that he was glad of the opportunity to add his voice in the welcome to Dr. Tolmie and Col. Peck. Prince Rupert was noted for its hospitality and it always did what it could to show appreciation of anything that was done for it. British Columbia was the best province in the Dominion and he believed that the north was the best part of the province. The district was rich in its minerals, fish, timber and agricultural industries. Recently he had occasion to visit the interior and had learned a good deal about it. Much time had been wasted by settlers in prospecting the land and ascertaining what it was best adapted to. It was fast becoming a great stock-raising country and that was the proper business there. Conditions here as elsewhere at the present time were not altogether promising but it was fortunate that Canada had at this time a man of Dr. Tolmie's ability and integrity in charge of agriculture.

Col. McMordie.

Col. S. P. McMordie, in responding to the toast, said that it was a pet topic with him. No Province had a greater future in store than B. C. from a mineral standpoint, the scenic beauties were unrivalled, it was a sportsman's paradise and the people were as good if not better than anywhere else. The percentage of men sent to the war had been higher than in any other province and those who had not been able to go had done their parts well at home. He urged that "we should tell the world that British Columbia was the brightest star in the brilliant galaxy making up the Dominion of Canada."

Colonel Peck.

The toast to "United States" was proposed by Col. G. W. Peck who on rising was accorded an ovation followed by the singing of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." The United States, said Col. Peck, was bound to Canada by unbreakable ties. Both Americans and Canadians were brought up in the same style, they had the same associations, the same language and ate the same "pumpkin pie." Together they were working shoulder to shoulder for the progress of the world and civilization.

"Dr. Tolmie is recognized as one of the best ministers of agriculture the Dominion ever had," said Col. Peck. "He does not play politics and he is possibly the most popular and most respected man in the House of Commons." On some occasions he had his policies opposed by the members of the government while the opposition supported them. He referred to Dr. Tolmie as an

"SALTED" OIL WELL SOLD TO YANKEE

NEW WESTMINSTER, Oct. 10.—Oil bubbled from the ground visited by Oscar Leiderstrom of Pendleton, Oregon, when he was shown over a site by Guy O. Butterworth who said he was an oil expert. Several spots looked promising. What seemed to be natural gas was there too, and Mr. Leiderstrom, who is a cattle man, made a deposit of $150 to clinch a later payment of $1800 for the oil land. It was in an apparently rich spot in the Fraser Valley. Later investigation, however, showed that Butterworth did not own the land, as it was the property of a farmer named Sutter. Also no real proof of oil existed beyond several quarts that had been scooped into the soil for the occasion. Butterworth cannot be found. He is said to be wanted by the police of Seattle and Tacoma for crooked work in sale of stock.

ANTI-SUICIDE BUREAU IS REAL LIFE-SAVER

VANCOUVER, Oct. 10.—"I've quit thinking about killing myself and now want nothing but a chance to live and make good." This is what Jesse Peter Owner told the police after leaving the hospital where he was treated for injuries due to his fourth attempt to commit suicide. He was world-weary and made up his mind to end all, he said, but the Salvation Army people visited him and talked him into a happier frame of mind. The record of this bureau shows many saved lives.
