

HARVEST FESTIVAL ANGELICAN CHURCH

Decorations Were Work of Mrs. Jennings and E. Pattinson in Charge of Choir.

Harvest festival services were held yesterday at the Anglican Church, Rev. E. Moss officiating. There was special music for the occasion by the choir in charge of E. Pattinson and the building was beautifully decorated under the direction of Mrs. Jennings, who in former years has done similar work for the church.

The artistic decorations were the subject of general remark. There was pretty lattice work in the chancel and grain and flowers were displayed with the greatest taste. The roll of honor was draped with a large flag and everything reminded of the festive occasion and showed the skill of the decorators in refined artistry.

The Man in the Moon SAYS—

AN enterprising man might start a balloon factory now the political campaign is coming on. There ought to be enough hot air going to waste to keep any number afloat.

WOMEN are cleverer than men. They can manage to walk on heels that would puzzle any man, they can manage a head of hair that is simply unmanageable and they can twist a man around their fingers with the greatest ease.

AMONG the things that don't get you anywhere is talking about yourself.

AMONG the things likely to get you disliked is talking about yourself.

AMONG the things that are in very bad taste is the habit of talking about yourself.

IT is all right to tell the world but not about yourself.

HERE is the new moonshine national anthem of the United States, as given in the senate the other day by Senator Sterling, of Kentucky:

My country, 'tis of thee,
Land of grapes and juice,
Of thee I sing,
Land where we all have tried
To break the law and lied;
From every mountainside,
The bootlegs spring.

My native country, the
Land of home brewer.
Thy bread I love,
I love thy booze and thrills
And thy illicit stills;
The moonshine runs in rills
From high above.

A Stitch in Time

Quick action is the only hope when kidney disease appears.

There is a whole train of dreadfully painful and fatal ailments which soon follow any neglect to get the kidneys right. Among others are rheumatism, lumbago, Bright's disease, hardening of the arteries and high blood pressure.

In Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills you will find a treatment which is both quick and thorough.

Mr. C. E. Raymus, Lindale, Alta., writes:—
"I was a great sufferer from kidney disease and lame back for more than a year. A friend of mine one day told me of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and acting upon his advice I tried them. After I had taken one box I felt better, so I continued until I felt well and strong as ever, and am glad to recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to anyone suffering as I did."

SATURDAY FREIGHT.

Editor Daily News:
In reply to J. F. Maguire's statement at the Board of Trade meeting that appeared in Saturday's News re union control, I wish to state that he or G. W. Nickerson do not know what they are talking about. In the first place the hours of the workers at the freight shed and depot are the same now as they were previous to the so called union control. Also Mr. Nickerson is misleading the public and fooling himself when he states that the freight department gets double pay for Saturday afternoon and as regards the statement they are refused goods to be delivered to them on Saturday afternoon they cannot support that statement. True its the company's ruling but the freight department is obliging. I think we need boosters for the Board of Trade, also for the city and not hickers.

Sport Chat

Hard times do not seem to be affecting attendance records at the World Series baseball games which are being held in New York at the Polo Grounds. While money may be scarce, it is perhaps due in fact to considerable unemployment that so many are attending the games. In any case it shows that professional baseball in the United States commands as much interest and as much support as it ever did despite scandals that have occurred in recent years and agitation that has been levelled against it so strongly. Fixed or not fixed the same wild enthusiasm and heavy betting still accompanies the big games and they seem to be little affected by the feeling that has been expressed against them.

The following are the players who are eligible to play in the World Series for the New York Yankees: Catchers, Walter Schang, Fred Hoffman, Alfred de Vornier; pitchers, Carl Mays, Robert Fergusson, William Piercey, Thomas Rogers and Jack Quinn; infielders, Walter Pipp, Aaron Ward, Roger Peckinpaugh, Mike J. McNally, J. Franklin Baker and John Mitchell; outfielders, George H. Ruth, Elmer Miller, Robert Meusel, Robert Roth, Nelson Hawks, Wilson Fawcett; manager, Miller Huggins.

The Giants' lineup follows: Pitchers, Arthur Nehf, Fred Toney, Phil Douglas, Jess Barnes, Pat Shea, Harry Salice, Bill Ryan and Cecil Gausey; catchers, Frank Snyder, Earl Smith, Alex Gaston and Mike Gonzales; infielders, George Kelly, John Rawlins, Dave Bancroft, Frank Frisch and Walter Kopf; outfielders, Ross Young, George Burns, Emil Meusel, Bill Cunningham, Eddie Brown and Casey Stengel; coaches and managers, Cezek Dolan, Hughie Jennings and John J. McGraw.
