

Scatter Sunshine with Xmas Cards

GOOD FORM is largely a matter of doing the right thing at the right time. That is why the sending of Greeting Cards has come to be not merely a matter of GOOD WILL but of GOOD FORM.

With Greeting Cards, as with everything else, the early shopper gets the cream of the stock to choose from.

This year our selection is larger, more varied, we do the printing at our own shop, prices are better than ever before and the demand is going to be exceedingly hard to supply. Order now.

It Never Changes

One thing about Pacific Milk which literally hundreds of people mention in their letters is its unvarying quality. Each can is exactly the same as every other, year in and year out. Some who have used it for five and six years say they have never found the slightest difference in all the cases of this milk they have used. Pacific Milk is the only milk put up in British Columbia.

NEAR ESCAPE FROM ELEPHANT

Flying Dive Gave Him Opportunity to Get Away.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—A good elephant yarn is told by J. Morewood Dowsett, a well-known big game hunter, who has just returned from a hunting trip in South Africa.

He was hunting elephants in Uganda when information was brought him of the whereabouts of a large herd. With a native chief and a house boy, he started to find them.

The party came upon the herd in the forest. Mr. Dowsett got several photographs within 20 yards of the beasts when the chief warned him that they had been "scented" and that the animals were coming for them. Snatching up his rifle Mr. Dowsett shot and killed the leader, a big bull.

While some surrounded their dead leader, many of the beasts stampeded and running the wrong way, Mr. Dowsett was out off from the party. Re-loading his gun, the hunter dashed off for safety and ran into a big bull elephant which crashed through the bush six yards in front of him.

Tried to Trample Him.

Trunk aloft, ears extended and bumping wildly, the beast rushed at Mr. Dowsett and swept him to the ground with his trunk and turned rapidly in its own length to trample him.

The hunter took a flying dive under the monster's belly, realizing he would then be on the right side of the wind but the beast turned rapidly round and again tried to trample him. Instead the animal rolled him over and over with its legs and the hunter saw above him the two great tusks as the beast tried to maneuver his body into position to pick him up. Mr. Dowsett managed to roll behind the animal and get to his feet and make a rush for cover.

To the hunter's relief and surprise the furious beast set off in the opposite direction and disappeared.
