

WEAK HEART VES BADLY SHATTERED

Woman who should be strong, full of life and energy, is the victim of a weak heart, shattered by the shock of a nervous breakdown or constitutional disorder. The mark in the form of a weak heart, shattered nerves, impoverished blood and an exhausted condition of the system.

BILBURN'S
HEART AND NERVE PILLS
Put a remedy that will supply the exhausted nerves, one that will regulate the weak circulation and revitalize the system.

For a year, I was left with a weak heart, shattered nerves, impoverished blood and an exhausted condition of the system. I had such pains around my heart and sleep much at night. I tried many medicines without any better. My husband got me to take Bilburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after one box I got relief, and after two boxes I have been well and not nervous.

BRINGING UP FATHER

PEARL FOUND IN CLAM CHOWDER

Jack Toner's Jewel in Bowl of Soup at Jack Toner's Mugup.

Say, did you ever eat at the fisherman's Mug-Up run by Jack Toner on the shores of Cow Bay? Now believe me this is some comfortable layout. No frills or silver but there is some swell music aboard when Jack gets the old melodion going, or as he is wont to call it the "wind bag," and everything is right up to snuff in the eat line. Jiggs can have all his corned beef and cabbage but Jack can certainly dish up salt pork, cabbage, mashed turnips, beans and potatoes in a manner which would make the mouth of a French chef in the West End of London water with envy.

Jack was born in Tyrone, County of Tyrone, Ireland, and he isn't a bit ashamed of the fact either. There is that touch of real Irish humor about Jack which would make an undertaker laugh, and his wit is evidently inherited by his son who is one of the leading comedians on the London stage. Jack says his son is the star mimic of stars and that his impersonation of Charlie Chaplin in "The Kid" has taken the old country by storm.

Discovers Jewel.

There is some stir around the Mug Up these days and a terrific demand for some of Jack's celebrated clam chowder. This is how it came about. Jack was up town a couple of days ago and got some real fresh clams from George Frizzell's with which he made a real honest to God, man's sized saucenpan of Clam Chowder. Jack Stewart, an old timer in the fishing and hunting game, who is a fiend for Clam Chowder, smelled the dish while coming in across the bay and straightway made a dash for the Mug Up on landing. Naturally Jack grabbed the largest basin at hand on Jack Stewart's appearance and gave him a real Mug Up helping of clam chowder. Stewart was going at the soup to beat the band when his tooth struck something of a hard nature and was just on the point of calling Jack down when he chanced to pick the offending item out of his mouth and looking at it got the surprise of his life. It was a real pink pearl of such dimensions that the color dazzled Stewart for a few moments to such an extent that, losing his balance with the shock he landed on the floor.

Cursed His Luck.

Jack Toner rushed to the scene and on lifting Stewart back to the chair, with the pearl tightly clutched in his mitt, joined in the astonishment, and cursed his luck for not being wise enough to strain the soup first.

Jack Stewart has been offered two hundred dollars for the pearl by a local jeweler, but not being hard up he is going to keep it for a while till they advance in price.

Now all the fishermen in the vicinity of Cow Bay are waiting for Jack Toner to dish up some more clam chowder soup while Jack is keeping the wires hot between here and Vancouver rustling up some larger saucenpans and soup basins.

More Clams Coming.

It is understood that George Frizzell is getting in his next shipment of clams by the car or boat load whichever route gives the quickest delivery.

DANCE AT DE LUXE HALL LAST NIGHT WAS BLAZE OF COLOR

The DeLuxe hall last night was the scene of a most enjoyable private dance arranged by one of the public-spirited ladies of the city for the purpose of allowing people to meet each other and enjoy a musical amusement. There must have been about one hundred present and all had a most pleasant time. It was a drowsy affair and the ladies gowns were a radiance of color, adding much to the gaiety of the scene.

Dancing commenced early and supper was served in the hall downstairs about eleven o'clock. After supper the Westholme orchestra took the place of the temporary music and dancing was continued until well past 1 o'clock, when it was with regret the party broke up.

MRS. J. I. WOODS WINS TEN DOLLAR PRIZE FOR NAME

"Gyfoe" is the name which has been selected for the Prince Rupert product formerly known as "Eureka Cleaner." This name was suggested by Mrs. J. I. Woods who wins the $10 prize offered. Mrs. Louchee, of the Eureka Manufacturing Co. was the judge.

ENGINEER'S POSITION

There has been a petition started to ask the mayor and aldermen to reinstate the city engineer in his position, a number of citizens believing that he was a faithful public servant and should not be allowed to resign. Mr. Clements heard of this and asked that it be stopped. He says that his resignation is final. He will not remain in the employ of the city any longer, after the end of the month.

VERSES ARE COMING BUT BETTER NEEDED

McRae Brothers Contest is Attracting a Good Deal of Attention.

The contest for Christmas verses in which McRae Brothers are offering a five dollar prize, is already attracting a good deal of attention and verses are coming in. Not many so far are considered suitable for the purpose required but the prize will be awarded for the best received when the contest closes. As before stated the contest will be a short one and verses should be submitted at once. Those who have already sent in verses may try again if they wish. Following are some of those received:

Season's Greetings.

Season's Greetings I send From the End of the West, Like the country they come from You'll know they're the best.

Christmastide.

At Christmastide Though far I roam Prince Rupert spells Next best to home.

My Hearty Greetings And wishes best I send from Prince Rupert The pride of the west.
