NEW PRINCIPAL OF PUBLIC SCHOOL HAS EXCELLENT RECORD

Harold C. Campbell, the recently appointed principal of the city public schools, is a young man with an excellent record, according to word received here from the south. He is a Victoria man, having been educated at the public and high schools of that city. He took his academic training at the Provincial Normal School.

He was first assistant of one of the Vancouver schools and during the past year has held a similar position at Esquimalt. All the Esquimalt people speak most highly of him and of his ability as a teacher and organizer.

Mr. Campbell saw active service overseas with the Medical Corps where he was right up to the firing line in France. He is keen on cadet work and also on organizing sports and games.

Mrs. Campbell is musical and is a singer of considerable ability. She is very popular among the young people of Victoria.
