Bring in Your Old Gold

Nearly every one has some old gold jewelry around which is out of date or not in use.

We can make it over into some new design or pay you cash for what you do not need.

You may be surprised what you can do with some seemingly useless article.

HANDLING RED LIGHT AREA WITH GLOVES IS DOING NO GOOD

Question of Car Parking Near Comox Ave. Again Discussed by Police Commission.

The all night parking of taxis in the vicinity of Comox Avenue was dealt with at the police commission meeting last evening.

Commissioner Macdonald stated that there was too much of an inclination to abhor the word "restricted district" and handle the situation with gloves. The sooner the authorities get down and recognize that such exists, the sooner will it be put out of business. In regard to the prohibiting of parking of taxis in that vicinity, the commissioner mentioned that it was being done with the end in view of stopping bootlegging operations that are said to be going on around there.

Mayor Rochester was in accord with the views of Commissioner Macdonald and stated that he did not care who knew it.

Commissioner Myhill-Jones was not present last night.

TWITTERS OF HUMOR EXCURSION BULLETIN

Editor Bruce McKelvie Getting Out Daily Paper on the Prince George.

Bruce McKelvie is the editor of the Vancouver Board of Trade daily paper. It is mainly comic section and either the worthy editor has a large fund of wit or he is in with an awfully funny bunch. Really, there's no news in the paper.

A few samples: "Visitors to Surf Inlet yesterday morning took shelter under the waterfall to avoid getting wet."

"The ship's pantry was invaded yesterday morning. Rumors give us Payne."

"Wanted—The latest dancing steps, stumbles, slides, wiggles, and wobbles. Apply T. S. Jazz Dixon."

"Miss Neison (watching the sailors on the Venture making fast to the dock at Surf Inlet; I can't see how those two men can pull that big boat."

FORMER MATRON OF HOSPITAL MARRIED TO LOCAL BANKER

Miss Elizabeth Atkinson, Last Night, Became Bride of Geoffrey Whitehead.

Two of the most popular of Prince Rupert's young persons, Miss Elizabeth Atkinson, former-matron of the General Hospital and Geoffrey Whitehead, accountant in the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, were married last evening at 8 o'clock.

The happy event, which took place in St. Andrew's Anglican Church, was witnessed by a large number of friends who had assembled for the occasion. His Grace Archbishop F. H. Penner officiated and was assisted by Rev. Canon G. A. Rix. During the ceremony, Mrs. Rix played the Wedding March.

Given away by H. T. Willett, the bride was unattended. The groom was accompanied by Hugh Tooker, who acted as best man.

A pleasing sight was formed by the Girl Guides, under Miss Pete Tremayne, and beneath which the bride passed when leaving the church.

Later a bridal reception and wedding breakfast was given at the home of Captain and Mrs. H. L. Roberson, 666 Seventh Avenue East. There were present besides the bride and groom: Captain and Mrs. Roberson, Miss Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. De Gex, Mrs. Tyre, Mrs. and Miss Du Verbel, Dr. and Mrs. C. V. Egert, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Willett, Miss Jean Willett, Canon and Mrs. G. A. Rix and Hugh Tooker.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Whitehead left for the south on the Prince Rupert to spend a three week's holiday. They will return to the city and take up their residence in the Summit Apartments.

VANCOUVER EXCURSION REACHED THIS CITY ON STEAMER PRINCE GEORGE

Weaver's Orchestra, one of the best in Vancouver, is also making the trip so there is plenty of harmony in that way.

Reasons of Trip.

The prime reason of the trip, as stated by the excursionists themselves, is to meet the people of the north and more fully educate themselves as to conditions. Through excursions in the past couple of years or so, the Vancouver Board has already pretty well covered the province and this is about the last part to visit. They want to exchange views with the people and get away from the natural barriers that have seemed to separate Vancouver from other parts of the province. They desire to learn the local points of view with the object of forming closer co-operation in the development of the whole province.

J. P. D. Malkin, president of the Vancouver Board is making the trip and W. E. Payne, the energetic and active secretary is acting as generalissimo. The party comprises some of Vancouver's most prominent business men including General J. Duff Stuart, J. A. Teeporten, Ald. T. H. Kirk, G. M. Rolston, J. Stillwell Clute, Captain Barney Johnson, Major J. F. Brandt, John Barnsley and others too numerous to mention.
