SOCCER ENTHUSIASTS TO VISIT VANCOUVER

Plans are being laid here for a large contingent of Prince Rupert football enthusiasts to visit Vancouver on June 18 to see the visiting Scottish international football team in action. Great interest is being taken here in the forthcoming visit of the big players of the Old Land and it is very probable enough local admirers will want to go south to enable them to secure a special rate from the railway company.

The interest in this visit is not confined to Scotchmen. All soccer players and fans will be interested in the games played on this coast.

Sport Chat

The football eleven from Scotland which will tour Canada this summer includes some of the best men in their respective positions in Auld Scotia today and the Canadian clubs will have to rustle up a great array of material to provide close games for the visitors. The Scottish line-up will likely be as follows: goalkeeper, Brownlie, of Third Lanark; full backs, Alick McNair (Geltie) and Dodds (Cowdenhead); half backs, Willie Cringan (Geltie) and Jimmy Gordon (Dunfermline); forwards, Duncan (formerly Newcastle and Rangers), Alick Bennett (Geltie) and Rangers, Andy Wilson (Dunfermline), Jimmy McMenamy (Partick Thistle) and Alan Morton (Rangers).

It's what an athlete does over a period of years that counts in sport rather than what one does in a single performance or in a single year. Consistent and continual good playing will make stars where spasmodic and periodical flashes of brilliance cause but temporary sensationalism. Ty Cobb, through his twelve years of leadership in the American League, has taken a place that cannot be usurped even by Babe Ruth, last year's hero, unless he keeps going for many more years the way he did last.

Sir Auckland Geddes, British ambassador to the United States, will be the guest of honor at the dinner to be given in New York on April 22 for the victorious U.S. Davis Cup tennis team, according to an announcement made by Julian S. Myrick, President of the United States Lawn Tennis Association. Inasmuch as the team which won the cup played both in England and Australia and journeyed to the latter country via Canada, it was considered peculiarly appropriate that the British ambassador should be present. Said Mr. Myrick: "The fact that the British ambassador has done us the honor of accepting our invitation shows clearly the position which tennis has attained internationally, and promises to make this dinner the most important event of the kind that has ever been held." The dinner will take place in the grand ballroom of the Biltmore Hotel. In addition to the Davis Cup team, members of former U.S. teams and men active in tennis throughout the United States are expected to be in attendance.

All the fish concerns located at the government wharf are to have their water supply metered, according to the decision of the city council last night. This will include the Royal Fish Co., which is already there, and the Pacific, Booth and Albin, who are moving there shortly.
