The New York Herald in an editorial on the recent international fishermen's trophy races charges that the Bluenose, the Canadian winner, "was especially designed for the race in the hope that she would win back to Canada the trophy which Captain Marty Walsh won with the Gloucester schooner, Esperanto, last November." Incensed very likely by the disqualifying of the Mayflower, by similar grounds, the paper declares that there was an essential difference between the Bluenose and the Elsie, the Gloucester defender. The Elsie, it says, "was built solely with a view to deep sea fishing." It also calls attention to the difference of twenty years in the age of the two vessels. Discussing the alleged racing construction of the Canadian boat, the Herald says: "Bluenose came within four feet of the over all limit set by the terms of trophy deed of gift, which is 145 feet. Naturally she ought to have more power than the Elsie which is only 106.5 feet over all with a beam of 25 feet as against Bluenose's 27 feet beam."

Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, the supreme head of organized baseball who succeeded the old National Commission, following the 1920 scandal in the American League, is 55 years of age. Before his appointment to the position he now holds he was one of the best known figures on the federal bench and one of the most fearless and sympathetic. He has had dealings with both the capitalistic and the socialistic classes. During the war he tried William D. Haywood for obstructing war preparations and found him guilty. In 1905 he fined the Standard Oil Co. $20,000 on each of 1,462 counts. He has been attacked in the Senate and has been threatened with death on more than one occasion. His drastic decisions, heavy penalties and outspoken criticisms made many enemies for him. He advocated national prohibition before it became enacted and after its passing closed more than 600 Chicago saloons for violating it. A lover of outdoor sports he seldom misses a baseball game and is an ardent golf player, fisherman and aviation enthusiast.

"PEACEFUL VALLEY" IS FAMOUS STAGE PLAY

Film Version Will Be Shown Tonight at Westholme Theatre.

"Peaceful Valley," the well known Sol Smith Russell success, which has a record of 5,207 stage performances, has at last been transferred to the screen, with Charles Ray, the popular cinema star, playing the leading role in his favorite part of a "hick."

The production, which was adapted by Isabel Johnston from the stage play by Edward E. Kidder, will be the attraction at the Westholme Theatre tonight. Jerome Storm directed the production of "Peaceful Valley" and prominent in the cast supporting Charles Ray are Harry Myers, Lincoln Stedman, Walter Perkins, William Courtwright, Vincent C. Hamilton, Jesse Herring, Ann May, Lydia Knott, Charlotte Pierce, Moiba Lorraine and Ida Lewis.

"Peaceful Valley" was for years one of the most popular footlight attractions in America. Sol Smith Russell, playing the leading role, registered his greatest success in it. As a vehicle for Charles Ray, it is declared to be especially suitable and in it the young star is said to have done some of the greatest work of his screen career.

Ann May, the charming little motion picture actress, who has been Charles Ray's leading woman in many other pictures, has the chief feminine role in "Peaceful Valley."

Sum of $291.24 is already Raised For Booth Memorial Tablet at New School.

The sum of $273.49 was raised on Saturday by the taggers for the Booth Memorial Fund. Among those who tagged were: Miss Evelyn Macdonald, Miss Dorothy Macdonald, Miss Jean McKay, Miss Alice Earley, Mrs. W. Balagno, Mrs. F. Gilhuly, Mrs. G. W. Johnstone, Mrs. A. H. Bayne, Mrs. S. L.
