GERMANS TRADE IN MARRIAGE LICENSES

Immense Increase in Weddings Induced by Cheaper Living Conditions

BERLIN, Mar. 26.—Marriage licenses are being utilized for profiteering by Germans. The marriage "profiteer" developed out of the situation which has made necessary the strict "rationing" of housing space. A married couple or a pair about to be married may obtain permission to occupy certain rooms by presentation of the marriage license to the Housing Office.

It has been discovered that many marriage licenses have been issued to men and women who have intention to marry, but, having secured the license, and the permission to occupy the number of rooms allotted to married persons, sell the "permission" to married folks or others who need rooms and cannot find them.

The officials say some profitable business has been done, but that the practice is being stopped by keeping a watch on those to whom marriage licenses are granted and withdrawing permission to occupy rooms unless the marriage is performed.

Marriages, however, eclipsed all previous records in the last year. The number has increased two-fold over pre-war years, and many fled over the marriages during the war, which fell to less than half the normal number.

"Many young folks today are getting married here simply to get a room cheaply," said a Berlin official. "The cost of the dwelling is cut in half by the marriage of a man and woman both of whom are working. They also feel they can cooperate to some advantage in the matter of food, which is a serious problem."

One Great Essential To a Woman's Health Is Her Nerves

Nature intended women to be strong, healthy and happy as the day is long, instead of being sick and wretched. But how can any woman be healthy and happy when the whole nervous system is unstrung? The trouble is they pay more attention to their social and household duties than they do to their health. As it any woman then that they become irritable and nervous, have hot flushes, faint and dizzy spells, smothering and sinking spells, become weak and nervous, and everything in life becomes dark and gloomy.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the very remedy that nervous, tired-out, weary women need to restore them to the blessings of good health.

Mrs. P. H. Ryan, Sand Point, N. S., writes:—"I have been a great sufferer from nerve troubles. I was so weak and nervous I could not sleep at night and my appetite was very poor. I could not walk across the floor without trembling. I had hot flushes and fainting spells. When I was on my second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I began to feel better and kept on until I had used six boxes when I felt like a different person. I am never without them in the house and recommend them to all who suffer with their nerves."

Price 50c, a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. ADVL.

WILD BOY OF INDIA

Was Suckled by She-Wolf and Became Leader Like Mowgli

LONDON, Mar. 26.—A wild boy resembling in some respects Kipling's character, "Mowgli," who was suckled by a she-wolf and grew up to be leader of the pack, has been found in a remote section of India, according to a story told in the Times. In this case, however, the boy is reputed to have been kidnapped by a leopard. He has been recaptured and his father is now keeping a sharp eye on him to see that he does not run away to the woods.

The Times credits the tale to Stewart Baker, who was recently in the undeveloped country round the Cachar hills on the Northeast frontier of India, where he was in charge of road-mending. It is customary in that region for the villagers to mend roads instead of paying taxes. Mr. Baker tasked a villager why he did not do his share of road-mending.

Had Wild Son

The man replied that he was afraid to leave his village. His wife having died a short time previously he had no one to take care of his little "wild son" who, in his absence, might run into the jungle and get lost. Mr. Baker paid the villager a visit and found a child about seven years of age, with innumerable white scars of tiny cuts and scratches all over its body.

The child's father told him that five years before, the villagers of Cachari had killed two leopard cubs. The mother leopard had prowled about the jungle bordering on the village. A few days later the mother of the child left it lying on a cloth while she went away to reap rice. In her absence the mother leopard carried the child off. The villagers searched for it, but could find no trace of it.

Missing Child

Some three years later a sportsman killed a leopard in the jungle. He told the villagers that the leopard had two cubs. They searched the jungle and found the two cubs and with them the missing child.

It ran on all fours quite fast, dodged and hid in bushes with great agility and skill and bit and fought with everyone who tried to lay hold of it. It tore to pieces and ate with extraordinary quickness any village fowl that came its way.
