DAILY EDITION.

Saturday, April 2, 1921.

Eight Pages
This Number.

This is the first occasion since the present management has had the Daily News on which the paper has issued with eight pages. It is more or less of an experiment and will continue on Saturdays if the support of the community warrants it. Further than that, it may become a regular daily feature. All will depend upon the amount of advertising which offers.

The Daily News office is now equipped with facilities for publishing any reasonable size. It has modern linotype machines and press and is as well equipped as any newspaper office in the country outside of the big cities. This is for the benefit of the people of Prince Rupert who are able to get a better newspaper than they otherwise would have.

The publishers of the Daily News are anxious to give the people of the northern part of the province the best possible news service but publishing is expensive. Paper, in the form in which we have to buy it, costs ten cents a pound, the highest wages are paid to operatives, telegraph tolls are high, the lowest rate paid being about three quarters of a cent a word and by certain routes double that amount. These things all make it difficult to publish a newspaper, but happily we have received good support and through the co-operation of an excellent staff it has been possible to carry on, even under difficult conditions.

Efforts are made from time to time to secure a better service with nearby points. At some of them we have correspondents, but, as it is impossible under existing conditions to pay for correspondence, interest is apt to lag. We consider that every community should have a correspondent for the newspaper circulating from the nearest city, for the advertising the community receives thereby. It is worth a good deal to any community to be continually figuring in the news columns.

Prospects Warrant
Improvements.

The prospects for this city warrant some improvements. We look for a good deal of building here this season. In addition to the erection of the new government buildings, which in itself will be a great thing, and the prospect that the pulp mill will be established, there will be a good many buildings erected by residents and others. There are a number planned for Section Two and other parts of the city will receive their quota. Taken all in all the outlook is encouraging and we look for a good season.

Must Carry Out

Moderation Provisions.

Now that the people have asked for a Moderation Liquor Bill and it has been finally passed by the Legislature of the province, the next thing to do is to see that its provisions are carried out. We have had enough law evasions in this province in the past. It was that which brought the prohibition measure into contempt and the same will happen with the Moderation Act if a similar condition is allowed to obtain. What we want here is strict law enforcement in regard to these things. To pass a law and then unite to evade its provisions is what causes so much discontent. There must be a wholesome respect for the laws of the country or it is impossible to carry on decently.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF RHEUMATISM

Entirely Well After Six Weeks' Treatment With "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MR. AMDECE GARCEAU

82 Hickory St., Ottawa, Ont.
"I was for many years a victim of that terrible disease, Rheumatism. In 1913, I was laid up for four months with Rheumatism in the joints of the knees, hips and shoulders and was prevented from following my work, that of Electrician.

I tried many remedies and was under the care of a physician; but nothing did me any good. Then I began to take 'Fruit-a-tives' and in a week I was easier, and in six weeks I was so well I went to work again.

I look upon this fruit medicine, 'Fruit-a-tives', as simply marvellous in the cure of Rheumatism, and strongly advise everyone suffering with Rheumatism to give 'Fruit-a-tives' a trial."

23:10 p.m., 17.7 feet.

Low, 4:38 a.m., 9.4 feet.

16:54 p.m., 6.8 feet.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.

BURIED CITY
DISCOVERED
IN MEXICO

Must Have Had Population of 100,000 Four Thousand Years Ago

San Juan de Teotihuacan, Mexico, April 1.—Prospecting for the habitations of a lost race in virtually the same manner as miners dig for gold, federal employees here have just started to uncover the remains of a city of at least 100,000 inhabitants which flourished 4,000 years ago. Here and there over the confines of the buried city have been sunk shafts to find streets, houses and temples known to exist below the level of the mountain valley in which lies the little village of San Juan de Teotihuacan, the name of which means in the Aztec tongue "City of the Gods."

The Mexican government has appropriated funds for this work of excavation which is in charge of Manuel Gamio, director of anthropology of the department of agriculture. The government hopes eventually to make the spot one of the show places of Mexico.

Pyramids to Sun.

Dominating the area are the two pyramids, one to the Sun and the other to the Moon, which for centuries have defied the efforts of archaeologists and historians to trace their origin. The pyramid to the Moon is still untouched, retaining an appearance by the lay eye of a huge mound of irregular shape, overgrown with grass and rubbish.

Senior Gamio says the city now under excavation at one time covered an area of 15 miles with a population of more than 100,000. Its builders are unknown to history but, Sr. Gamio believes they were a portion of an Indian tribe which wandered into Mexico from the north and, finding the valley fruitful and the climate salubrious, decided to settle.

STALLION STAKE FOR TROTTERING HORSES

CLEVELAND, April 2.—The American Association of Trotting Horse Breeders' championship stallion stake, valued at $12,000, will be raced at the second Grand Circuit meeting at the North Randall track here the week of August 8. The association's Matron stake, worth $9,000, will be contested at the Toledo Driving Club's Grand Circuit meeting the week of August 1. Secretary James Clark announced.

These stakes this season will be worth more than any futurities ever promoted by the association. Fifty-eight three-year-old trotters have qualified in the championship stake and sixty-five have been entered in the matron stake. The list of eligibles include practically every good three-year-old trotter in training.

TRADES AND LABOR
REPRESENT WORKERS

So Says Frank LaForte, President of Ottawa Council

OTTAWA, April 2.—In a statement issued here, Frank LaForte, past president of the Ottawa Trades and Labor Council, Canadian organizer of the International United Leather Workers' Union and a prominent labor leader, commended the stand taken by Hon. Gideon Robertson, minister of labor on behalf of the government, in refusing to give representation to the National Catholic labor unions at the forthcoming conference of representatives of the building industry in Ottawa.

After stating that the international movement was not fighting any church or religion, and was anxious to co-operate with them all, Mr. LaForte went on to say that the minister of labor had done a real service to all workers by making it plain that the government recognized the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada as the only body in Canada truly representative of workers of every religion.
