WHARF NEWS STAND HAS CHANGED HANDS

The fruit and news stand at the G.T.P. wharf, which has been run for the last few years by the dean of all Prince Rupert old-timers, Arthur Little, changed hands yesterday, it having been taken over by the Canada Railway News Co. The latter company which has been operating railway news stands and train buffets on the entire G. T. P. system for a number of years, lately purchased a concession on a similar business on all C.N.R. lines and boats. The amount of money involved in obtaining the concession, was in the neighborhood of $50,000. The stand here will be in charge of a young returned man named Robert Ogilvie. It will doubtless receive its fair share of patronage, from those glad to be able to purchase papers, fruit, soft drinks and candies, etc., the last minute before getting on to the boat or train.
