Tom Moore a Real Leader.

Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, who addressed a meeting in this city last evening, bore out, at that meeting, his reputation of being a man of moderate and reasonable views. Nevertheless he is a man whose heart and purpose is wrapped up in the welfare and advancement of the workers and producing class to perhaps a greater degree than the idealists and theorists whose usefulness to the cause they profess to represent is hampered to a great extent by the impossibility of the schemes they advance. Tom Moore seems to have something practicable and reasonable to offer when he advances a proposition for the betterment of the worker. A man holding such ideas as he does is far more likely to meet with practical results than the man who proposes to upset the whole scheme of the nation's existence in a single day. Legislation of recent years has proven that it is such men who have had more effect with the legislators of the country.

Men of North Should Know First Aid.

Lives are continually being lost in this north country that could be saved if the simplest devices of first aid were known and applied. In many cases great distances intervened between camps where men are engaged in hazardous industrial pursuits and posts where medical aid is available. It is especially important, therefore, that a knowledge of first aid should be acquired by the common workman. It is easily obtained and the occasion might arise at any time where it would save life. Government legislation has been passed whereby certain protection is given against accident by the presence of "first aid men" in logging and construction camps where there are a large number of men employed. No legislation can, however, be enacted that will offer safeguards to all. A man never knows but that his knowledge of methods to combat suffocation by water or smoke, bleeding or fractures might save his own life and such a knowledge might well be made a requirement for those employed far from medical assistance in many of the camps of the north.

Prince Rupert Free of Crime.

It is very pleasing indeed to record the lightness of criminal dockets in assize court sessions at Prince Rupert. It is said that there are a great number of rough characters in Prince Rupert and the district but they certainly do not appear in the courts. After all it does not necessarily follow that because a man is rough that he is a criminal. Often in the cruelest of rock may be found the richest of metal and so, often, in the roughest of appearance may be found the most sterling of character. In any event, the small amount of serious crime that is committed here and in the immediate vicinity is a matter of gratification. While other places have their murders and their burglaries Prince Rupert for three years has not had a session of the Supreme Court in which criminal cases figured to any noticeable degree. Mr. Justice Gregory, in opening the present session, remarked that the lightness of the docket was due partly to the frailties of a certain public institution. That loss, however, was not a very serious one and would not have made the list much larger. And that the particular loss did not involve a resident of this district but rather one of the foreign territory to the north.

PROVINCIAL ELECTION IN ALBERTA LIKELY

May Be Late This Month or in Fall.

EDMONTON, June 3.—A provincial election in the near future is looming up as a possibility, according to the Edmonton

Journal. "Rumors are now persistent, and the likelihood of another contest is being somewhat freely discussed in political circles. Late June is mentioned as a possible date, while another rumor has it that it will be held in the autumn, with perhaps a referendum on the prohibition question in the meantime," it is stated.

BECAME SO THIN SHE WAS AFRAID

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Made Her Well, Strong and Vigorous

MADAME ARTHUR BEAUCHER
805 Cartier St., Montreal.

"I suffered terribly from Constipation and Dyspepsia for many years. I felt pains after eating and had gas, constant headache, and was unable to sleep at night. I was getting so thin that I was frightened and saw several physicians who, however, did not seem able to help me.

At last a friend advised me to take 'Fruit-a-tives'. I did so and soon I felt some relief. I continued with 'Fruit-a-tives' and in a short time, the Constipation was banished, I felt no more pains or headache or the disagreeable sensations that follow dyspepsia. Now I am well, strong and vigorous."

APPROVAL OF THE RED CROSS

Church Authorities and Prominent World Officials Behind Campaign

TORONTO, Ont., June 21.—The National Headquarters of the Canadian Red Cross Society here has received from heads of the churches of Canada and from individuals prominent in state affairs of the world high expressions of approval and support of its Membership Enrollment Campaign, which is now being conducted. Among them are the following:

From the Primate of all Canada of the Anglican Church—"On behalf of the Church with which I have the privilege to represent I wish to assure the Red Cross Society that it can count on me to commend in every way in my power to my fellow churchmen the laudable and valuable direction to which it purposes to turn its peace-time activities."

Church Support
From the General Superintendent of the Methodist Church in Canada—"I feel sure that the members of the Christian Churches in Canada, including the one with which I have the honor to be officially identified, will welcome the opportunity afforded them by the Red Cross Society of being represented in, and contributing to, this great and attractive redemptive work."

From the Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada—"Most cordially do I commend to the ministers and members of the Presbyterian Church in Canada the work of the Canadian Red Cross Society, and urge them to give to it all possible encouragement and support."

Catholic Church.
From His Grace Archbishop O'Leary, Archbishop of the Roman Catholic Church Diocese of Alberta—"The Red Cross is indeed worthy of every commendation on the part of the public."

"You are organizing a splendid campaign. You are sending out a heart on a mission to humanity. If you follow it in the proper spirit, all will be well with your Red Cross Society."

From the Commissioner of the Salvation Army in Canada—"I am glad to assure you of the Salvation Army's sympathy and good wishes in connection with the appeal which I understand your Society is shortly making to the people of Canada."

From Cardinal Mercier of Belgium—"Gladly I express my deep respect for the work of the different organizations of the Red Cross Society for the purpose of continuing in time of peace the beneficent service which it carried on in time of war and for which the war afforded the opportunity. I wish success to the campaign which is being undertaken by the league of Red Cross Societies for the purpose of enrolling an even larger number of members than before."

Herbert Hoover.
From Herbert Hoover—"Even before the war many nations found a fundamental value in the National existence of Red Cross Societies. During the war in every belligerent country, these societies took their place as great national agencies of indispensable service. Today, with ever increasing memberships, they stand ready to function in time of stress and disaster, striving to solve some of those fundamental problems which every country has to face. I sincerely hope that time may see Red Cross Societies in every nation continuing in that great humanitarian effort which has made their name respected the world over."

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

June 3, 1911.
Harry O'Neill had his leg badly fractured last night as the result of a heavy mass of rock falling on him while working on Watson's street contract on Second Avenue near Lynch's store.

Douglas Storings and Freddie Corral, Daily News boys, were yesterday adorned with watches which they won in the monthly competition for the largest number of papers sold and the greatest number of subscribers brought in.

PRINCE RUPERT TIDES

Friday, June 3

High, 11:36 a.m., 17.7 feet.

23:35 p.m., 20.8 feet.

Low, 5:30 a.m., 5.0 feet.

17:22 p.m., 7.4 feet.

Saturday, June 4

High, 12:22 a.m., 18.6 feet.

Low, 6:13 a.m., 3.5 feet.

18:19 p.m., 6.9 feet.

The time used in Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west, is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.
