Sport Chat

When the Wallace Dry Dock Athletic Club committee started last week to recruit players for a proposed baseball club to join the City League they found that most of the players of talent at the shipyard had already been signed on in the other teams of the league. The same was the case when an attempt was made to raise a football aggregation. It therefore seems unlikely that the dry dock will be able to enter teams in either the football or baseball leagues this season. Baseball, rather than football, seems to be the sport which the shipbuilders are most enthusiastic about.

If both Carpentier and Dempsey are on their feet at the termination of the twelve round no decision contest that is to take place in New Jersey on July 2, no decision can officially be rendered. The boxing laws of New Jersey forbid it. The only decision that could then be accepted would be if one kayoes the other and then the decision would, no doubt, be refused by the loser on a point of legality. Thus the punch is taken out of the big fight that fans have been so interested in for months. No doubt, Tex will make arrangements to have the pair match again later in some locality where the world's championship can be decided.

Although the attractiveness is largely taken out of the match by this ruling, stiff prices will be charged for seats at the New Jersey contest. Prices will range from $50 for a ringside seat to $5 for a bleacher coupon. Intermediate sections will sell from $10 to $10 a seat according to location. The arena will be built of lumber in an octagonal shape and will cost approximately $100,000. The eight sides will rise to a height of about fifty feet. Dempsey, as heavyweight champion of the world, and Carpentier, as challenger, will compete for sixty per cent of the gate receipts, which will be divided on a basis of sixty per cent to Dempsey and forty per cent to Carpentier.

The defeat of the Glasgow Rangers by the Partick Thistles in the Scottish Cup final on Saturday came as a big surprise to nearly everyone who takes an interest in Old Country football. They had been expected to pull off the double victory of winning both the league contest and the Scottish Cup, for they have gone right through the season sustaining only two defeats of any note in the previous games, once when they were defeated by the Celtic in the league race on New Years and again when they fell to the Celtic in the Glasgow Cup semi-final. The Glasgow Rangers, as known, are the champions of the Scottish League, while the Particks, playing an up and down game all season, are in third place and 25 points behind the Rangers.

On Wednesday evening the first junior football game ever played in the city will take place. The teams will be the Wallace Athletic and the Wallace Dry Dock.

PRINCE RUPERT CLUB WINS MOORE SHIELD

Final Bridge Game Was Won by Wanderers With Lead That Was Too Small.

The final bridge tournament for the Moore Shield was played on Saturday night in the Wanderers Club but, in spite of the victory of the Wanderers by 70 points, the trophy goes to the Prince Rupert Club by 1789, the Wanderers having been unable to reduce the big lead that they were facing at the beginning of the last tournament. The series consisted of six tournaments that have proved quite a source of interest between the two clubs.

The scoring on Saturday night was as follows:

Prince Rupert Club	For	Against
Crawe and Morrison	2025	1186
Hillbury and Gibbons	2250	2777
Palmer and Scott	2491	2676
Nickerson and Trotter	2543	1828

FISHING PARTY TO TWENTY-ONE MILE

Few Good Trout Caught by Local Men who Made Short Visit to Resort

A fishing party consisting of A. Nicholls, R. H. Harlow, Douglas Stark and Mr. Skatkehol made a trip to the lake and river at Mile 21 Saturday and brought back a few fine trout. They report it just a little early for big catches. They went as far as the lake and fished coming down the lake, but were more successful in river. They got nothing from the lake, although it could not be said the fishing was good anywhere.
