PAINFUL DIARRHOEA

Cramps in Stomach

Mr. Fred [illegible], Craik, Sask., writes:—"A year ago last August I was taken with a sudden attack of diarrhoea which completely laid me out, and in a few hours I had to quit work. The cramps in my stomach were dreadful; the beads of perspiration would stand out on my face at times I was in such great distress. At last I got a chance to send to town for a couple of bottles of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. I used it according to the way I felt and soon obtained a great change for the better, for which I was very thankful. I don't know what the cause of my sickness was except the extremely hot weather and the active work of stooking the wheat.

Several of my neighbors were taken the same as myself and had the doctor attend them, but they didn't get any great relief until I advised them to use "Dr. Fowler's," when they soon experienced a great change."

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has been on the market for the past 75 years and many cheap imitations are being offered to the public.

Be sure and get the genuine put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. Price 50c. a bottle.

THERE is an account in an Alaska newspaper of a party going to search for a lake of oil said to be in the Point Barrow country or between there and the Canadian boundary. The paper adds that if oil is found in any quantities there is likely to be a stampede to the neighborhood. It might have also added that if they found plenty of gold nuggets by the wayside they would probably be rich.

RETURNED SOLDIER WEDDED LAST NIGHT

War Romance Culminates in Marriage of Miss Eliza A. Jarvis and James M. Keays.

The wedding took place last night at 8 o'clock in the Methodist Church of Miss Eliza Ann Jarvis, daughter of Harry Jarvis, [illegible], England, and James Merton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Keays, Maple Creek, Saskatchewan, Rev. George G. [illegible] officiating. The ceremony was a very quiet one, there being present only Mr. and Mrs. James K. King, of Fifth Avenue East, the witnesses, and Mrs. A. W. Clarke, who played the Wedding March. The bride was daintily gowned in white silk with veil.

The groom is a painter at the Wallace Shipyards and served overseas, the wedding being the culmination of a war romance. The bride lived in England and has been in Canada about nine months.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Keays left on the Prince Rupert to spend a honeymoon in Vancouver and other cities. On their return they will take up their residence at 620 Fifth Avenue East.

COMPETITION WRITING VERSE

Prizes Amounting to Ten Dollars Offered for Best Examples.

As a little amusement during the dog days readers are invited to take part in a rhyming contest. Former contests specified limericks only. This time the rhyme may be a limerick or not as the writer wishes. The limit in length will be ten lines, anything longer than that being discarded as ineligible.

It is not serious poetry we wish but just a few catchy lines dealing with camping, swimming, sports or games or anything with which readers are likely to be familiar.

There will be three prizes given, five dollars, three dollars and two dollars respectively. Ten dollars in all.

Contributors are not limited to any number of entries but it is advised that quality and not quantity is what is required.

The following is an example of a Limerick:

Narrow Escape.

He went to the lake for a dive
As one of a party of five;
He was fearful he'd sink
When he fell in the drink;
It's a wonder he got out alive.
