ECONOMY ADAPTATIONS

At a time like this when many people are unable to purchase the luxuries of life which have become almost necessary to their existence we find the more adaptable members of the community looking around for substitutes. For instance, many people this year cannot afford to buy peaches, apricots, plums and other fruits for preserving. They may possibly afford the sugar but to buy both would mean a very serious curtailment of a very valuable part of their food supply.

Some people have discovered that in their own back yards or within a very short distance therefrom there are wonderful little low bush cranberries which make excellent preserves or puddings or pies. They are not so large as the commercial varieties but the quality is just as good. They also make a good sauce for turkey or chickens or other poultry or game.

Other berries which are used by a good many include the blueberry, the little red huckleberry and the salal, all of which are very good when properly prepared and they help to provide those vitamins and other food elements which are necessary to perfect health.

It has been suggested that anyone who has been successful in the serving of any of the wild berries might tell the Daily News how they did it so that others might benefit from the experience. Write the recipe in as few words as possible and send it to the editor.

EVEN CONSERVATIVES KNOW

The Omineca Herald, Conservative, says: "Premier Tolmie, it would seem, has not been well advised by some of those he consulted in regard to forming a union government. It seems that his advisors were more intent on getting rid of the leader of the opposition and his first lieutenant than they were in getting a better government."

St. Andrews-By-The-Sea

See bathing in the warm waters of Katy's Cove, St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, New Brunswick, and sun bathing on the shining sands, are two of the most healthful and entertaining occupations of those who visit this popular and smart resort, which centres on the Algonquin Hotel of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

The illustration shows a group of socially prominent people from Canadian and United States cities sun bathing after a most refreshing plunge, and include:—Mr. and the Hon. Mrs. R. M. Redmond; the Hon. Percy, Hazel and Anne Shaughnessy; Judge and Mrs. Bond; Miss Margot Redmond; Mrs. S. Watson; Mrs. R. D. Bell; Mrs. George Balfour; Mr. Donald Markey; Col. Allan Magee; Gordon Shirres; Gordon Reed; Miss Dora Magee; Mrs. Nora Wainwright; Mr. R. C. Stevens; Miss Canlie, of Montreal; Miss H. D'Arcy, St. Louis; Miss V. Schoonmaker, New York; and D. A. Anderson, Ottawa.

Inset is little Miss Lucinda Marguerite Vaughan of Montreal, who is showing the world what the well-dressed infant wears when about to paddle in the warm water, or build a great, big castle on the sands.

New York Yankees and Chicago Cubs to Start Annual Baseball Classic This Week

MECHANICS WIN TITLE

C. N. R. A. Softball Championship Settled Yesterday

In the Canadian National Recreation Softball League playoff for second half honors yesterday, the Round House trounced the Station team by a score of 10 to 4, thereby obtaining possession of the Haines Softball Trophy while the Station receives the C. N. R. A. Softball Cup for runners-up.

The game was well played until the seventh inning when the Round House scored eight runs. The Station went up in the air and, with a few long hits by Cameron and Johnson and a medley of errors of both omission and commission by Station, the Round House ran the bases at will. The outstanding batters were Johnson and Cameron for Round House while Stiles secured the best hit for the Station with B. Tobey also batting well.

Allen in the field for Round House, played tip-top ball, while Horton and Johnson were safe at short and third.

The Station infield had an off day.

Round House—Johnson, Horton, Cameron, Smith, Raabe, Arney, Allen, A. Skattebol, Nelson.

Station—Geddes, Unger, Astoria, Stiles, W. Tobey, B. Skattebol, Antonelli, McIntosh, B. Tobey.

Umpires—Comadina and Howe.

Billy Rheil, bench warmer with the Detroit Tigers, is a pinch hitter who really hits in the pinches. In 11 times at bat as a pinch hitter he connected with a safe hit nine times.

Not Attending World Series

WASHINGTON, D.C., Sept. 26.—It is announced at the White House that President Herbert Hoover will depart from his usual custom and not attend the opening of the World Series at New York on Wednesday. For the past three years, the president has journeyed to Philadelphia to attend the opening of the World Series. It is explained that the chief executive is too busy with campaign matters this fall to attend the games. Advertise in the Daily News.

Two Children and $4⁰⁰ a Week!

WHEN John T — was alive and healthy, both he and his wife were proud of the fact that they owned $5,000 of Life Insurance.

Five thousand dollars looked like a lot of money—about as much as John could earn in two years' time. Then suddenly Mrs. T — was left alone in the world—alone, except for their two children and the Life Insurance.

Earnings stopped but bills had to be paid. In a few months' time, the insurance money had shrunk to $4,000. At this time, Mrs. T — did some figuring. Safely invested, $4,000 would yield $200 a year—less than $4.00 a week. Not enough to pay the rent, let alone buy food and clothes for three!

And so another widow sought menial work through the classified ads. of the newspapers—and two more children were deprived of a mother's care.

Not a very pleasant story—but a true one. That's why we suggest that you measure your Life Insurance by the income it will produce—the income that you will need for your own old age—the income that will help take your place, if necessary.
