SUPPRESSION IN AUSTRIA

Political Enemies Are Interned and Newspapers Censored Without Inquiry.

BUDAPEST, July 9.—The government has lately been attacked by members of the National Assembly because of the fact that 20,000 persons are in internment camps in Hungary. Internment is a powerful weapon in the hands of the government. Anybody can be interned by a simple decree of a police director or sheriff, without a previous judicial inquiry. There are cases where people have been interned upon anonymous information that they entertained Bolshevik sympathies. Bishop Giesswein was loudly applauded in the Assembly the other day when he declared that some 20,000 persons interned in the camps had been detained two years without having been once examined by a magistrate. He stated that former Communists are not released upon having served their sentences in prison but usually are transferred to one of the internment camps.

Breeds Communism

It is charged that the camps hold many who merely are disliked by government officials. The camps are isolated from the outside world, the prisoners pass their time in idleness and the deputies were informed are becoming hot-houses for the breeding of Communism.

Members of the Assembly also complain against the censorship and charge that the local newspapers are subject to a minute and ignorant application of the law, resulting in the suppression of news and comment which are unpleasant to the government.

The telegrams of foreign newspaper correspondents are no more exempt from the vexations of censorship than are the local newspapers. Commercial dispatches are censored and the censor frequently prevents the delivery of messages using code words.

Anti-Jewish.

It is charged in the Assembly that there is still a strong current of semi-official trend against the Jew. The chief of Budapest police recently undertook a revision of the moving picture licenses on the ground that a more just distribution was desired. Licenses were taken from 20 Jews and assigned to new petitioners.

These acts are no longer viewed with indifference but have been rebuked by deputies. There are indications that public opinion is veering toward democratic and liberal principles and that it has become out of sympathy with the ultra-national and ultra-Christian war-cries of street-corner politicians. "The Hungarian nation yearns for the air of liberty," declares Count Apponyi.

Advertising is often expensive, but it is nothing like as expensive as an empty store and idle clerks.
