PRESAGE OF BIG VICTORY

NEWMARKET, Ont., Dec. 5.—Speaking here to a large gathering of electors, Hon. Mackenzie King, Liberal candidate in North York, expressing thanks for his nomination and referring to conditions in North York, said Liberalism had never shone so splendidly as in this riding today.

Mr. King dealt with railway matters and stated that the member for North York had voted with the Premier to deny information to Parliament and the people. The shipment to Canada of high explosive shells to the value of six million dollars was again dealt with by Mr. King.

There were savings which could be made, Mr. King declared. The country's debt to the returned men, must be met though everything else was defaulted. There must be an attempt to bring down the cost of government in order to reduce the cost of living.

The Liberal leader declared the tariff to be only one of the issues. The Prime Minister talked of tariff revision, but Sir, H. Drayton who headed the tariff commission through the Dominion maintained a discreet silence as to any tariff changes.

No legitimate industry, said Mr. King, would suffer because of the Liberal tariff revision though that revision would be downward. Why Unemployment? "The Government speaks of unemployment if the high protective tariff is changed," said Mr. King.

The Liberals believed in revising the tariff in a manner to increase production by lightening the burden on implements of production in the basic industries and on the necessities of life. Help Other Classes. The Laurier administration had secured 33 1-3 per cent. British preference, Mr. King said.

He did not believe because common-farmers were in it that the farmer movement was other than a class move. The Liberal party was wide enough, Mr. King declared, to take in representatives of all classes.

SATURDAY'S CONFERENCE ON IRISH QUESTION

Oath of Allegiance and Other Matters Before Delegates in London.

DEUBLIN, Dec. 3.—Members of the Daill Eireann today are considering the British Government's latest proposal for an Irish peace settlement. There is little optimism as to the decision.

The new terms offered by Lloyd George are not known but it is believed they are based on an all-Ireland Parliament, the Government of Ulster being given the option of withdrawing after six months.

To overcome the Sinn Fein objection to taking the oath of allegiance to the Crown, the oath of allegiance proposed to be sworn to is an Irish free state in the commonwealth of nations known as the British Empire and to the King as head of that commonwealth of nations.
