Fine Exhibit at Smithers

Bulkley Valley Fall Fair Was Huge Success—Exhibits Very Good.

SMITHERS, Sept. 26.—The Bulkley Valley Fall Fair held here on Thursday was a huge success. To the relief of everybody concerned the day was ideal. Only once, about 3 o'clock did a cloud cross the sky, causing the pessimists to fear that the proceeding would be marred by a heavy shower. The cloud passed over, however, leaving only a few raindrops in transit, and old Sol peeped out smiling as though he had enjoyed a little joke at the gloomy ones' spirits—a few—very few—were in bad spirits, or perhaps it would be more correct to say outside of them. However everybody was enthusiastic, and the commonly expessed opinion was that this fair was the best ever held in the Valley.

The exhibits of grains and grasses gave visitors an opportunity of seeing for themselves what can be grown in the north, the showing being very fine indeed.

Practically all the well known breeds of cattle were represented in the live-stock department, some splendid examples of both male and female stock being exhibited.

The poultry exhibits were a little disappointing. The stock shown in this department was good but the exhibitions were few. Your correspondent is satisfied from personal knowledge that there is sufficient good poultry in the valley to make a splendid showing. It is a pity modesty makes some people so diffident.

The Ladies Work Department was a centre of attraction and interest. Cunning needle work, crochet work, etc of most every conceivable variety and a mere man could not but be filled with a sense of the profoundest admiration for the skill and patience that must have been expended upon all this array of work.

The home cooking, fruit canning and butter making exhibits made a very worthy showing, and such of the bachelors who mustered up sufficient courage to inspect the wonderful array of good things, must have been led to seriously doubt the advantages of the life of single blessedness.

The garden vegetables made a splendid display. One might travel far and not see a finer and more varied showing of vegetables.

Hazelton Girl Is Married to Mountie

Miss May Hutchinson and Constable Jack Tycehurst wed at Telkwa.

A very pretty wedding took place in St. Stephen's church, Telkwa, on Wednesday afternoon when Constable Jack Tycehurst of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police was united in marriage to Miss May Hutchinson of Hazelton, says the Omineca Herald. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Bravfield in the presence of a large number of friends of the contracing parties.

The bride, who was given away by F. B. Chettleburgh, was attended by Miss Violet Miller, and the groom was supported by Corporal Hall. The church was very tastefully decorated with autumn leaves and flowers. After the ceremony the bridal party went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chettleburgh where a wedding dinner was served.

The happy young couple took the evening train for points east and upon their return will reside in Telkwa. The bride and groom are both well and favorably known in the district, the bride having been on the Hazelton Hospital staff for a time and the groom has been on the R.C.M.P. at Hazelton and Telkwa.

Dr. Chase's Ointment will relieve you at once and afford lasting benefit. 60c. a box; all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Perry Opens New Hall at Fort Fraser

Sports of All Kinds Enjoyed Including Baseball and Horse Races.

The first Civic Holiday was held here on Thursday, when the new Fort Fraser Public Hall was officially opened by Harry G. Perry, M.L.A for Fort George. He made a very effective little speech, congratulating the ladies of "Our Club" through whose efforts the hall was built, and expressing the hope that it would serve as a truly helpful Community Centre. Sports of all kinds were carried through during the afternoon, including a baseball game and a horse race. Other popular attractions were the Nigger dolls, the mysterious hula hula, the dancing Egyptian Princess, and the wheel of fortune. To conclude a day long to be remembered by all present, a grand ball took place in the evening, the music being supplied by the Brain Jazz Orchestra from Vanderhoof.

The new Esperanto Cafe, recently opened by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Belsham is still going strong. Meals are served at all hours, which is a great convenience to visitors.

The children's story hour inaugurated by Rev. H. Graham last week is proving a great success.

Flyers Are Still Waiting in City

When Weather Conditions are Favorable, Polar Bear Will Try for Wrangell Again.

The airplance Polar Bear, bound from Mexico to Siberia, is still here being held up by rough weather and rain from continuing her flight North. C. O. Prest, the pilot, has found the fall weather in this section of the country even more treacherous for flying than he had anticipated especially since his flight to Ketchikan on Friday.

In spite of this, both Mr. Prest and Mechanician Bach have hopes of continuing the flight yet and, if they can make White Horse, they think that the rest should be quite possible. They are not going to take any undue risks, however, and will bide their time until the weather becomes a little more settled. When it stops raining and reports from Ketchikan and Wrangell are favorable, Mr. Prest will again hop off for the north. It will take a day after the rain stops for the machine to dry out before he will be able to leave.
