ALICE LAKE STARS IN PARISIAN PLAY

"Body and Soul," a photoplay promising to be the most interesting of Alice Lake's appearances on the screen, will be seen at the Empress Theatre tonight.

Local motion picture theatre-goers have seen and liked Miss Lake in the comparatively few but more than comparatively successful pictures which have been hers since her sensational rocketing to popularity. As the fisher girl in "Should a Woman Tell?" and the not dissimilar but more ambitious role in Jas. A. Herne's "Shore Acres" her freshness of personality and strength of emotion placed her on an artistic plane which she achieved again as the rough diamond heroine of "The Mist Wife."

The Man in the Moon SAYS:

THE delegates from the Union of B. C. Municipalities threatens to go before the bar. Is it any wonder Honest John wishes to abolish the bar.

IT'S a sad tale, but they say a certain man in Prince Rupert got so far behind in his room rent he had to marry his landlord. That was many years ago, of course.

THE fortune teller was rather taken aback when the fair customer told her she wanted to know not so much about the future husband she would get but about the past of her present husband.

THERE are walnuts and hazelnuts and Brazil nuts and just plain, unvarnished, unmitigated nuts. The reference is to people living in Vancouver, of course.

IT was a brave man who undertook to kiss the wives of about thirty reputable citizens in one evening.

BIG ATTENDANCE AT DANCE LAST NIGHT

Women's Auxiliary of Central Labor Council Affair Was Well Patronized.

The biggest crowd yet in attendance at a dance of the Women's Auxiliary of the Central Labor Council was recorded last night when about 200 gathered. The event proved thoroughly enjoyable to the strains of excellent music provided by Arthur's Orchestra. At midnight splendid refreshments were served.

Mrs. S. V. Cox was at the head of the affair and Mrs. Metz, who convened the committee in charge was assisted by Mrs. Heavyside, Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. Casey, Mrs. Swanson and Mrs. Booth. J. Bain was the master of ceremonies and W. Bundell attended the door.

There's no more use in having goods that nobody knows about than in winking at a pretty girl in the dark.
