

Special Enlargements

This Enlarging Machine is a new invention recently brought out by the Kodak Company. It revolutionizes the making of enlargements.

Ten vastly superior prints—just as sharp as the contact prints—are made in the time formerly required to make one. Remember, however, that only good negatives make good enlargements.

Similar scene or subject, to which perhaps a bit of sentimentality is incomparable for a home decoration. The proof of the pudding is in the eating. Send along your negatives artistically mounted and framed.

HARD WINTER FOR INDIANS

W. E. Collison Returns from Fortnight's Visit into the Naas River District.

COUNCIL IS ELECTED

W. E. Collison, Indian agent for the Naas River district, has returned from a fortnight's visit into the country coming under his jurisdiction. He was up the river a considerable distance and visited Gitlakdamiks, Lakalzap, Gwinaha, Aiyansh, Kincolith and the carmery settlements. Indian councils were elected and other general business looked after preparatory to the closing in of the winter season.

Mr. Collison reports that the Indians have been hard hit on account of the poor fishing season and money is not very plentiful among them. At the present time many of them are digging their gardens and taking the crops of potatoes and other vegetables. Others are out hunting and trapping. The winter is going to be a hard one for many.

A Wet Trip.

The trip was rather a wet one and Mr. Collison said that he experienced storms there at the same times as they were here. There was a lot of rain in the vicinity of Aiyansh.

The following Indian councils were elected, Mr. Collison having charge of the vote taking.

Gitlakdamiks.

Chief Councillor—James Smyth.

Councillors—Charles Morven, George Robinson, Isaac Wright, John Davies, Amos Gosling.

Lakalzap.

Chief Councillor—Leonard Douglas.

Councillors—Arthur Calder, Sam McKay, L. Moody, Peter Calder, Arthur Nelson and Sam Gray.

At Gwinaha.

At Gwinaha a board of three to manage affairs of the village through the winter was appointed. It is as follows: Samuel Pollard, Weshaks, Paul Zalu and John Moore.

Village officers, including fire chiefs, chief constables and superintendents of electric light plants, were also chosen at each place.

The election of Kincolith will take place later.
