SLUTCHBURY SAYS BUNKERS TO BE BUILT SOON DOLLY VARDEN MINE TO OPERATE ON LARGER SCALE THAN EVER SOON

Making Final Arrangements for New Coal Bunkers to be Erected Here Next Month

Edward Slutchbury, trade commissioner for the province, reached the city from Edmonton last evening bringing him the plans of the coal bunkers that he says will be the course of erection at this port by July 1. Mr. Slutchbury says that the present time is for the purpose of making final details for the erection of the bunkers and, on being interviewed this morning, he had little to say on the subject. He will be here probably a fortnight, during which he plans to visit Juneau and Anyox. The announcement made, however, that the bunkers are to be erected on the local waterfront and that within the very near future.

Germans Must Live Up to the Treaty in Respect to Army

BERLIN, May 18.—The allies fix June 30 as the time limit for German disarmament in a note received here today demanding that the German army be brought into conformity with the peace treaty. This applies to superfluous munitions and fortress equipment which must be surrendered as well as arms in the possession of civilians. Germany must further conform to the demands of the allies in regard to munitions factories and reduce all classes of police to 150,000. PARIS, May 18.—The reparations commission in accepting 150,000,000 marks offered by Germany makes it clear that this is only on account of the billion marks due on May 31.

PRINCE WOULD GIVE BRITISH PREFERENCE

Fifty per cent in Favor of the Land But Non-Committal on More.
TAWA, May 18.—Hon. T. A. leader of the progressives, in his budget speech was much applauded. He charged Premier with anti-Catholic prejudice while seeking the support of Catholics for his ministry. Answering a question, Mr. Greig said his party favored giving the British preference to the coal, but did not answer the question if he favored free trade with Britain after five years.

Children of Treaty Can Not Be Allowed to Break Any Crockery in Europe

LONDON, May 18.—In a statement here this morning, Lloyd George reiterated the British attitude towards the Upper Silesia question as expressed by him in a recent speech in the House of Commons. He disclaimed responsibility for the "distorted reports in French newspapers" and says that the fate of Upper Silesia must be decided by the Supreme Council and not by Korfanty. "The children of the Treaty of Versailles cannot be allowed to break crockery in Europe with impunity," he remarked.

Dolly Varden Mine Will Operate on Large Scale When It Again Opens Up

Development work may shortly commence at the Alice Arm mines and when shipping recommences it will be on a larger scale than ever before.

This statement was made today by Major G. B. North, manager of the mine at Alice Arm, who arrived on the Prince George on his way north to make a survey of the properties. He has spent the winter in the south.

Major North was not in a position to make a definite statement but he said that work might shortly be resumed. He pointed out that he was going to make a survey and report. Anything that might be done in the near future would be along development lines. Major North admitted that when shipping was again resumed it would be done on a scale surpassing all past records for the Alice Arm properties.

What success A. J. T. Taylor, president of the company, had on his recent trip to the Old Country with a view to interesting capital, Major North would not state.

The Alice Arm mines closed down about Christmas of last year.

RAILWAYMEN LESS WAGES

Out to be Made on July 1, U. S. Railway Labor Board Says.

CHICAGO, May 18.—The United States Railway Labor Board has decided to revise downward the railway wages on July 1, the amount of reduction to be announced on June 1 following a close hearing of the appeal of the workers against the proposed revision of 20 per cent in their wages.

REJECTION TO FISH TREATY

Opposed by Washington Governor Hart and Senator Jones.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—The Senate foreign relations committee, Governor Hart and Senator Jones of the State of Oregon oppose the pending treaty between the United States and Great Britain for regulating sockeye salmon fishing in British Columbia in Washington waters. They claim that it discriminates against Washington where all fishing is regulated while only part of the British Columbia waters are protected. They also urge that the treaty be necessary from an American point of view.
