OPPOSES INDECENT DRESS AND DANCING

Rev. Francis E. Clark Urges Christian Endeavors Against Tainted Practices.

NEW YORK, July 8.—An appeal to Christian Endeavors throughout the world to oppose Sabbath desecration, indecent dress, sensuous and promiscuous dancing and suggestive moving pictures was made by the Rev. Francis E. Clark, president at the Sixth World's Christian Endeavor convention here yesterday.

In outlining proposed activities for the coming year he said: "I should like to see a league of Endeavors set themselves against indecent dress, sensuous, promiscuous dancing and sensual and suggestive moving pictures, all of which are destroying the modesty and eating out the souls of millions of young people. Let not Christian Endeavor be tainted by practices that lead to conformity with the world, the flesh and the devil.

"The home is also our sphere of action. We are all children or parents or brothers or sisters. We belong to homes. Why should not family Christian Endeavor be a vital part of our program for the years to come? Many of us must establish or help sustain family prayers, at least breakfast table prayers, even in these busy days.

"The decline of family religion is a terrible menace to the Christianity of the future. The men and women of generations yet unborn will have reason to bless you if you stem the tide of worldliness in the home and establish there an altar to our God.

We cannot escape our relation to the community and the nation. Christian Endeavor must be patriotic but not partisan. It must take its place against the desecration of the Sabbath and of every high and holy thing. It must stand for temperance and purity. In other words, it must stand everywhere and always for Christian citizenship."

BOLSHEVIK NAME.

RIGA, Latvia, July 9.—The Nevsky Prospekt, the "Broadway" of Petrograd, has been rechristened by the Bolshevik government "25th of October Prospekt," that being the date, by the Russian calendar, in 1917 when the Soviets overthrew the Kerensky government. So it now becomes popularly known, in Russian, as "Oktober Prospekt."

NO HARMONY IN HOLY LAND BOLSHEVIKI

British High Commissioner Says Bolsheviks Will Be Expelled.

JERUSALEM, July 9.—Sir Herbert Samuel, the High Commissioner for Palestine at a recent festival, addressed a representative gathering here. In the course of his speech he expressed regret that harmony between the devotees of different creeds, which he earnestly desired to promote, had not yet been attained. He declared that Great Britain would never impose on the Palestinian people a policy contrary to their religious, political and economic interests.

Pernicious Doctrines.

Referring to immigration Sir Herbert said it must be definitely recognized that conditions did not admit of mass immigration. Among new arrivals, he added, there had been a number tainted with the "pernicious doctrines of Bolshevism." Those who are known to be Bolsheviks had been arrested and would be expelled with the exception of those liable to punishment for complicity in the disturbances at Jaffa. Immigration had been suspended pending a review of the situation.

Sir Herbert said he was anxious that the Palestinian people should be more closely associated with the administration. Great Britain, he assured his hearers, intended to make provision for the government of Palestine in an instrument which would be registered with the League of Nations. The interests of the non-Jewish population would be not only safeguarded by the mandate itself, but likewise in the instrument referred to, in which the future constitution of the country would be defined.

In conclusion Sir Herbert said: "I earnestly desired to see this land, the centre of sacred associations for hundreds of millions of men, inhabited by a people kindly and peaceable. Most earnestly do I desire to see it progressing in quietness and harmony toward a prosperous and noble future. Let the government and the people unite in their efforts for the sake of that ideal."

MANY DUELS ARE FOUGHT IN AUSTRIA

BUDAPEST, July 9.—The passion for duelling, which slumbered in Hungary during the war is breaking out with increased vehemence, according to a report of the Ministry of Home Affairs just made public. About 6,000 challenges to fight were recorded during the last six months, and in 350 cases the combat was fought without a serious result. There were three killings.

Trifling incidents have been the cause of some encounters. Treading on a man's foot in an over-crowded street car or calling a person a "fool" might impel two solemn-looking gentlemen in full dress and top-hat to call on you on behalf of the offended person requesting you to name your seconds.

Washed By Blood.

As a rule the conference leads to explanations, apologies and a protocol embodying these important facts to the satisfaction of all parties concerned. But when the insult is considered too gross or the offender too stubborn, the seconds rule that that only blood can wash the insult away and they fix the conditions of the next morning's encounter with light, or heavy swords, with bandages or without or with pistols. The combat then takes place in one of the fencing schools or, when fought with pistols, in some deserted meadow outside the town.

Political antagonists frequently change arguments for weapons and a heated debate in Parliament is generally followed by a couple of duels. Even ministers have to accept the challenge of an opposition member and it is still remembered that the late Count Stephen Tisza when prime minister fought nine duels with his political opponents.
