Modern Methods Have Limitations.

Modern methods and conceptions have their limitations. Last night Archbishop Du Vernet spoke of the modern conceptions and the result of psychological study in the religious life. He showed that in the promulgation of religious ideas the press could be very powerful, but it could not replace the personal touch of the church congregations. So in most new things, there are new phases of old things, but there is no real change in fundamentals.

Archbishop Du Vernet is a man who believes in adapting himself to modern ideas and modern methods. He believes in using the press to promulgate his views. Through the Daily News he often addresses the largest audience he can possibly get in Prince Rupert and its environs. Allowing five readers to each paper, there is a possibility of his reaching over eight thousand people through these columns, but he told of his articles being placed before half a million by means of one of the greatest newspapers in Canada.

Archbishop's Views Are News.

The Archbishop is able to secure entry into the press because he has a real message for the people. His views are news. He has a keen intellect and is able to analyze and define and condense. The result is that when he writes he has something to say and newspapers are always glad to pass on a real message. The Daily News welcomes the articles which the Archbishop writes because he has the modern conception and is able to express it. That is why the Montreal Star also is pleased to give prominence to his articles.

Must Hold Fast to Old Fundamentals.

In spite of this new method of propaganda, the old must not be forgotten. The power of a good public speaker is as great as it ever was. It is greater, in that the eloquent speech can be passed on by means of a newspaper report. The great speaker can move multitudes as no impassioned oration printed in a newspaper possibly can. The unity of thought and the magnetic influence of a group gathered for a common purpose is wonderfully great.

There is too great a tendency these days to forget the value of learning to debate. There is a desire to get our education through the movies instead of by contact with the master minds of the world in literature and with the modern masters through debate and personal discussion. While one may be good, the other must not be forgotten or neglected or there will be developed a light and frivolous type of manhood, easily swayed, without that spirit of self reliance spoken of by Colonel Peck and with a tendency to return to the type from which we sprang before we learned to walk on our hind legs.

Debaters Play Part In Government.

Why are there so many lawyers in Parliament? Because they are debaters. Part of their legal training is public speaking. The result is that at election times, when public speakers are needed, they are invited to the fore and they go. The public speaker is still a valued asset to the community as long as he is a clear thinker and has a sense of real responsibility.

Public speaking is an art that can easily be abused. It can be used with effect in a bad cause as well as a good one. That is why it is necessary that young men with high ideals should be trained to express themselves, for only so can the right be advocated or defended and the bad denounced.

8 OTTAWA ST., HELL, P. Q.
"For a year, I suffered with Rheumatism, being forced to stay in bed for five months. I tried all kinds of medicine without relief and thought I would never be able to walk again. One day while lying in bed, I read about 'Fruit-a-tives' the great fruit medicine, and it seemed just what I needed, so I decided to try it. The first box helped me, and I took the tablets regularly until every trace of the Rheumatism left me." LORENZO LEDUC.

High, 11:16 a.m., 19.1 feet.
Low, 5:25 a.m., 9.8 feet.

18:13 p.m., 5.3 feet.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.

Creditable Report of Activities for 1920 Presented at Hospital Board Meeting

Twelve regular meetings of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the general hospital were held during the year 1920 and the mending at the hospital has been taken care of and many contributions have been made as well. The following articles were contributed: 10 dozen bath towels, 100 large sheets, 100 draw sheets, 125 pillow cases, 51 bedspreads, 18 hospital shirts, 20 binders, 1 oil stove, 24 lith. sheets, 24 lith. stockings, 24 lap sheets, 24 stand covers, 24 instrument tray covers, 50 line towels, 24 doctors' caps and 24 doctors' gowns.

MAYO TO SHIP 3,000 TONS ORE

Will be Rich and Permanent Camps, says Juneau Customs Collector

JUNEAU, Feb. 3.—Last year's business at Skagway showed an improvement over the business of the year before and hope prevails there that the depression resulting from the war and the high cost of living and producing has ended, according to the annual report of F. J. Vandewall, the Deputy Collector of Customs in charge at that place, which has been received at Customs headquarters in Juneau. It is believed that lower prices for commodities and the lowering wages in the interior will result in the opening of new mineral sections that are supplied through Skagway.

Mr. Vandewall predicts that the Mayo silver-lead district on the St. Mary River will be a rich and permanent camp. The Yukon Gold Company is proceeding with development work there on an extensive scale and will have 3,000 tons of sacked ore hauled out to the river for shipment to the Outside, via St. Michael, during the period of river navigation next summer.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

February 3, 1911

The town of Juneau is all excitement over an alleged murder arising out of a love affair. Selina Dowling, a beautiful half-breed girl, is under arrest.

The Prince Rupert Industrial Association has gone on record as endorsing the telephone girls in an effort to secure an increase in wages.

A very successful concert was held in the Salvation Army Citadel last night. Mrs. Johnston and Lieut. Wright sang a duet, Mrs. Hoyt and Captain Kerr gave recitations, Mr. Miller and Miss Mabel Gray gave cornet solos and other recitations and songs were given by Fred Leggett, Johnnie Law, George Shaw, Mrs. Derry and Ensign Johnston.

A party of prominent G.T.P. officials is snowed in up the line. A snow plow was taken up to clear the track in front of them and fresh snow having fallen after they are blocked, for the plow cannot be reversed.

Miss Joan Nutrie and Miss Godwin, trained nurses, have arrived from the Vancouver General Hospital to join the local hospital staff. Miss Atkinson now has 8 graduates, 7 pupil nurses and 3 probationers at the hospital.
