BRINGING UP FATHER

NO ONE THINKS OF DAD.

Now Christmas is upon us and we've said our midnight prayer: The sun is rising in the east, sweet music fills the air. The widow is not forgotten, and the little child made glad; The maidens all are smiling, but there is no one thinks of Dad.

He sits there in his cottage or rooming house alone; His mind returns to childhood and once a happy home. He sees his little hobby horse and his playmates all so glad; But now he's sad and lonely when there is no one thinks of Dad.

Perhaps he was the strongest—in his family the best— The one with greatest courage, and the man who came out west. Through fate he is alone out here; life's battles make him sad When he sees the world rejoicing and no one thinks of Dad.

Now the sun is setting, Christmas will soon be past; Good cheer to my old neighbors and every little lass. In a few days distant we will enter the new year; Let us all join in together and send poor Dad some cheer.

—P. McGUIRE, Regina, Sask.

SPECIAL XMAS MUSIC CHURCHES

All Local Congregations Will Be Presented With Splendid Services.

The local churches have arranged special programmes of Christmas music for both the morning and evening services on Christmas Day.

At the Presbyterian Church in the morning the children's choir will render the musical portion of the service. Christmas carols will be sung entitled "Hosannah! Hosannah. It Made the Angels Sing," and "Carol, Sweetly Carol." Luther's cradle song will be sung by the infants and a solo will be sung by Miss Nella Clarke. The morning service will be devoted entirely to the children and Rev. H. R. Grant will preach a suitable sermon for the little folks. The music at the evening will be rendered by a special choir. "The Sanctus" and the anthem "Behold I Bring You Glad Tidings" will be sung. The Christmas carols "Oh, Holy Night" and "Christmas Bells" also will be rendered. Mr. Stewart Langill will sing a solo, and the Vesper hymn will be sung at the close of the service.

Methodist Church.

In the morning at the Methodist Church the musical portion of the service will be rendered by the Junior Choir. A special anthem entitled "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains," a solo entitled "Oh! Saviour Divine" by Miss Marjorie Lancaster, and a duet by Miss Verna Thompson and H. G. Higgins "Hosannah! In the Son of David" will be rendered.

In the evening a special anthem by the choir will be sung. Mrs. Stanley Bennett and H. G. Higgins will sing solos. A selection from Handel's "Largo" will be rendered by Pryce's Student orchestra, which will also accompany the other numbers on the program.

Baptist Church.

The children's choir will render the music at the Baptist Church in the morning. In the evening there will be special music given by the adult choir and twenty-eight beautifully colored lantern slides will be shown depicting "The Birth of Christ." Mrs. P. H. McMillan will sing a solo.

Anglican Church.

At the Anglican Church in the morning a full festive service will be rendered with Jackson's "Te Deum." The anthem "Hark the Glad Sound" will also be given the solo part being taken by J. E. Davey. In the evening Stainer's "Magnificat" and the "Nunc Dimittis" will be sung by the choir, and the solo "Oh Divine Redeemer" by Miss Davies.

Catholic Church.

Christmas midnight mass will commence at the Catholic Church at 11:50 this evening. The choir will be considerably augmented and will render the beautiful number "Mass in G," by Bordelet, accompanied on the organ by Charles Balazano. The hymns "Adeste Fidelis" and "Oh! Hold Night" will be rendered by the choir, and an organ solo will be performed by Mr. Balazano.

HARRY LIPSETT GETS XMAS CARD FROM HELL

Where John Hansen, formerly Skipper of Rose Point, is Spending the Winter.

Harry Lipsett has received a Christmas card from his friend, John Hansen, formerly skipper of the fishing boat, Rose Point. Mr. Hansen is spending the winter in Hell and says that he is having a great time. Mr. Lipsett believes that he is the only person in the city who has had communication this winter from Hell, which is a small town in Norway near Trondhjem. The postcard shows the railroad depot in Hell.

TWO MEN—ONE GIRL

One of the Phases of "The Gilded Lily" Starring Mae Murray.

A contest between an unsophisticated country boy and an experienced city man over a girl they love is one of the interesting phases of "The Gilded Lily," an original picture story by Clara Beranger, in which Mae Murray, the famous Paramount star, appears at the Westholme Theatre tonight. Just who is the lucky one is kept dark until the very end of the picture and when it is revealed it comes as a complete surprise. Lowell Sherman, a prominent screen player, is leading man. Others in the cast include Jasdon Roberts, Charles Gerard and Leonora Ottlinger.

THREE PARTS IN A GOOD ADVERTISEMENT

Top, the Bait; Middle the String and Bottom the Hook.

A good advertisement is divided into three parts. In the upper part you must not put your name; nobody cares for your name. Neither must you put the name of your goods in the top portion; but you must put something bright and attractive.

Remember that the top is the bait, the middle the string, and the lower portion the hook. The top to make people look, the middle to make them like, and the lower to make them bite.
