KING TO FORM GOVERNMENT

Complete List Yet Available of Winning Candidates in East and Majorities.

OTTAWA, Dec. 7.—With a clear majority over the combined strength of Conservatives and Progressives, the Liberal party under Mackenzie King will form a new government, while the former administration will be reduced to the position of a third party in the House, the position formerly occupied by the Progressives, who now assume the position of the official opposition.

Strength shown by the Liberals, especially in Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick, was one of the outstanding features of the fight. The clean sweep of the Quebec constituencies was a record.

Speculation is already rife as to the composition of the incoming cabinet. The exact date of Meighen's resignation is unknown, but it is expected this formality will not be long delayed.

Miss Agnes McPhail is the first woman elected to the House of Commons.
