FLORIDA BECOMES A SOUTH SEA ISLAND

George Fitzmaurice Transforms Sections of Beach for "Idols of Clay."

George Fitzmaurice transferred a bit of the South Sea islands to the coast of Florida for his latest Paramount production, "Idols of Clay" which local screen admirers will have the pleasure of viewing at the Westholme Theatre tonight and tomorrow.

Mr. Fitzmaurice and his company, which included Mae Murray and David Powell as the featured players, made their headquarters at Fort Lauderdale, some thirty miles north of Miami, where they used a wide stretch of beach. Here they erected a number of huts in the true fashion of South Sea Islanders. The fisheries, coconut groves, and tropical atmosphere were all ideally located.

"Idols of Clay" casts Mae Murray as the unsophisticated daughter of a South Sea recluse and pearl smuggler, who in time reaches the heights of London society and in the end is rescued just in time from a horrible existence in a Chinese den in the Limehouse slums. David Powell has the role of a young English sculptor who has lost all faith in women and his art, but regains both through the devotion of the girl from the South Seas.

LOUISE HUFF PLAYS IDEAL PART IN "THE DANGEROUS PARADISE"

Star Interprets Role of Young Society Girl in Latest Selznick Picture.

A new Selznick Picture "The Dangerous Paradise," with lovely Louise Huff in the starring role, is announced as the feature attraction of the new bill which begins at the Empress theatre tonight.

"In 'The Dangerous Paradise,' which was made under the direction of William P. S. Earle, Miss Huff is given a splendid opportunity to interpret the role of a young society girl in a story that is interesting throughout. The story is from the pen of Edmund Goulding, a photo dramatist of note, who has acted, directed and appeared in several Selznick productions.

PRESIDENT KELLEY IS NOT PESSIMISTIC ON RAILROAD PROSPECTS

WHITBY, Ont., June 24.—Sir Joseph Flavelle, President Howland and D. B. Hanna, president of the Canadian National Railways, held a conference for co-ordination of plans affecting the two systems which Sir Joseph said were "largely of a detailed and technical nature."

President Kelley is not pessimistic as to the future of Canadian Railways, he said, after certain needed readjustments are made.

SHIPYARD MEN GAVE CONCERT

Good List of Boxing Bouts Interspersed with Music Made Evening Most Enjoyable.

The Wallace Shipyard Athletic and Social Club held another entertainment at the Commissary on Wednesday evening. It was well attended and highly successful.

The following program was presented to the pleasure of all in attendance:

Three round boxing bout between Battling Crossley, 95 pounds and Flash Galbraith, 100 pounds. It was hotly contested and resulted in a draw.

B. Lundquist, 95 pounds, and B. Bell, 100 pounds. This was a fair exhibition but Lundquist showed signs of his recent illness.

Digger Woods, 133 pounds, and "Knockout" Fraser, 125 pounds. This was an interesting bout but Fraser was handicapped by the lighter weight.

Sluggo McKay, 115 pounds, vs. Lefty Warren, 120 pounds. Both boys were in the pink of condition and were very fast. Their footwork was particularly good.

The main bout was between Muggins Roy, 130 pounds, and Kipper Chisholm, 140 pounds. The contest went six rounds and was a test of endurance but at the end both men were still going strong. Roy showed his cleverness both in attack and defence and his footwork was fast.

J. McGready president and L. Eldred refereed the bouts.

Musical Numbers.

Between the boxing contests there were splendid musical numbers.

A. Ward played a steel guitar solo. W. Wisby sang "Mammy O' Mine," and "That's the Reason Why I Wear a Kilt." G. Kenyon provided much amusement with his comic songs, "McCarthy" and "Ya Ya Vanderson." The mandolin duet by Messrs. Brown and O'Connor was especially entertaining, their selections being "Let the Rest of the World Go By," and "Till We Meet Again."

The evening closed with a hearty vote of thanks to the entertainers.

DELAYED TRAIN CAME IN THIS MORNING

Tourists Will be Given Opportunity of Going to Stewart Tomorrow.

Last night's overdue westbound train, fifteen hours late, arrived this morning at 9:45. The cause of the delay was a mud slide at Sheer, a station east of Smithers. Between 25 and 30 passengers, mostly tourists on the way to the lower coast cities, will be detained here until Sunday night when they will continue their journey on the Prince George. Practically no inconvenience or annoyance will be caused them by not making the connection with the boat last night as the railroad company are doing everything possible for their convenience and they will now have the advantage of seeing more of this northern part of the province. They will be able to sleep on the Pullman car tonight and tomorrow transfer to the Prince George and make the trip to Stewart, for which no extra charge will be made. This morning the visitors are busy taking in the sights of the city and rather enjoying their enforced delay by the experience of a stay in a real pioneer city of the west.
