BRINGING UP FATHER

BANQUET FOR MINISTER ON ARRIVAL HERE

Affair Had Been Arranged for Tonight but Postponed Until Tomorrow.

The Northern B. C. Agricultural and Industrial Association and the Board of Trade are making joint preparations to tender a banquet to Hon. S. F. Tolmie, federal minister of agriculture, and Col. C. W. Peck, M.P., on their arrival in the city on the Union steamer Venture, which it is expected to arrive here at 9 tomorrow. It was originally planned to hold the banquet tonight, but on account of the delayed arrival of the guests it has been postponed until tomorrow night.

It had been expected to have Dr. Tolmie and Colonel Peck at the regular meeting of the Board of Trade tonight, but that will now be impossible. There will be a meeting of the Fair Association to meet Dr. Tolmie.

THRILLING BATTLE ON TOWERING CLIFFS

A thrilling gun-battle on the towering cliffs of a mountain range, spectacular riding by Harry Carey's flying squadron of cowpunchers, and a two-fisted combat in which the hero fights against uneven odds, are a few of the pulse-quickeners of "The Wallop," a western photodrama at the Empress Theatre tonight. Harry Carey is the star. It is a Universal production directed by Jack Ford from a story by Eugene Manlove Rhodes.

C. B. Flewin, of Port Simpson, sailed last night for Vancouver.

I'm So Tired

Fatigue is the result of poisons in the blood. So when the kidneys fail to purify the blood one of the first indications is unusual and persistent tired feelings and pains in the back.

Neglected kidney troubles lead to years of suffering from rheumatism or develop into such fatal ailments as Bright's disease.

The kidney action is promptly corrected by use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills — the best known regulator of kidneys, liver and bowels.

Mrs. John Ireland, R.R. No. 2, King, Ont., writes:

"I was a great sufferer from severe headaches and bilious spells. I tried a number of remedies without obtaining any benefit until I was advised to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. These completely relieved me and made me feel like a new person. I am very grateful to Dr. Chase's medicines for what they have done for me, and you may use my letter for the benefit of others."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25c a box, all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

"Something to Think About" Unfolds Wonderful Drama of Human Life.

The wonderful de Mille picture at the Westholme Theatre tonight is a powerful production. David Markley, a cripple from birth, is a wealthy art student living on the hill above the village with his old housekeeper and a Japanese servant. At the foot of the hill lives Luke Anderson, the village blacksmith and his daughter, Ruth. David has known both for years, and as Ruth nears womanhood David sends her away to be educated.

Ruth returns to the village as a young woman of the world and David falls in love with her. Owing to his crippled state, he hesitates to avow his love and Old Luke, recognizing the situation, urges Ruth to propose to him. She does so and on the eve of their marriage, Ruth renews her childhood friendship with Jim Dirk, son of a farmer, who has just returned from agricultural college. When Ruth contrasts Jim with David, she returns Jim's love. She elopes with Jim, leaving it to her father to tell the news to David.

Love's Dream Shattered. The shattering of David's dream of love, leaves him a broken-hearted and bitter man. The father, angered by what he considers Ruth's cruelty to David curses her as he labors at his anvil. He prays he may never see her again, and strangely enough, he is blinded by sparks due to his carelessness. Meanwhile, Ruth and Jim have taken a tiny home in the city where Jim joins a "sandbag" crew in an under-water tunnel. As he starts for work one morning, Ruth tells him the secret she has kept to herself until that moment.

Left Destitute. A cave-in occurs in the chamber of the tunnel and Jim, who might have saved himself, plugs up a water hole to save his fellow-workers, the fathers of children. He is unable to escape and is drowned. Left destitute, Ruth finds employment in a laundry, but owing to her condition, she is forced to give up the work which she finds too hard. She supports herself as a charwoman, but is obliged to give this up also. In despair she returns home to find her father blind, but in his unforgiving bitterness he ignores her appeals and turns her out of the house.

With Wreck of bi-plane Polar Bear—Was Here Month and Seven Days.

After having spent a month and seven days in the city, during which time he gave the first airplane exhibitions ever seen in Prince Rupert and ended up by having his machine wrecked in last week's gale, Clarence O. Prest, pilot and owner of the Mexico to Siberia bi-plane Polar Bear, sailed last evening for Seattle on the steamer Prince Rupert with the wreck of his machine.

The fuselage had been dismantled and the wings were left here. The engine was also taken off and was placed in the hold of the steamer while the body was stowed on the starboard side of the forward deck. Mr. Prest will take the wreck to Seattle but has not yet decided whether he will dispose of it there or take it on to Los Vegas, Nevada, his headquarters to rebuild it.
