BAPTISTS IN GOOD SHAPE

At Social Last Night, Rev. W. H. Redman Dealt With Church Finances.

Last evening under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Baptist Church another successful and enjoyable get together social was held in the church rooms. During the evening Mrs. E. V. Ling and A. Clapperton rendered solos and P. Linzey gave humorous shadowgraphs with Fred McDonald and Miss Muse assisting. W. Vaughan Davies was piano accompanist and he also gave solos. Those present joined heartily in the singing of old fashioned songs. Rev. W. H. Redman, the pastor in speaking stated that much credit was due to the Ladies' Aid for the splendid work that the organization had done. In the past seven months, with the assistance of other departments, the church had been able to pay off nearly $300 of local debt. Today the church did not owe a single cent of local debt. Now it was hoped to get to work on the building debt and an effort would be made to reduce this. The amount was not large when one considered the fine and well equipped church which was second to none in the city. The pastor thought that it might be possible to pay this debt off entirely in three years' time or less and he made an especial appeal to all departments.

More singing took place after the pastor's address and the affair closing with the singing of the National Anthem.

WHO ARE WE ALL?

Editor Daily News:

I see by yesterday's issue that Mr. Myhill Jones considers you have committed a very great indiscretion in saying he is a Conservative and denies most emphatically that he is guilty, pointing out so far as I can gather that he was a Liberal of the Sir Galahad order who has been so disgusted by a "political scandal" alleged to be perpetrated by a Liberal statesman that he is now—What?

If Mr. Myhill Jones will take the trouble to look over the hand book got up by the Liberal and Progressive parties for use during the election he will find an account of the way the soldiers vote at the front was manipulated to return members of the Coalition party to power after they had been rejected in the elections in Canada. Names of the guilty parties are all published. Perhaps a perusal of this will cause Mr. Myhill Jones to make another change.

Regarding the Board of Trade scandal fixing the price of sugar at 21 cents when it was selling at 13 cents in New York an action that has been declared illegal by the privy council. How does this affect the conscience of our local Sir Galahad?

I see it announced in a recent news item that Mr. Myhill Jones and Oh, Baby! will shortly depart on an important and lucrative mission carrying ballot boxes. Now Sir, Mr. Myhill Jones has been appointed to this duty by the president of the Conservative association, acting as returning officer who it is also inferred dispatched our esteemed townsman Capt. Freeman on a "secret mission" on which he set out in a smoke screen. Capt. Freeman also denies he is a Conservative and informs the world at large that he is a Canadian. Surely we must all admire the liberality displayed by our returning officer in appointing these gentlemen to offices of honor and emolument under these conditions.

IS EASY TO BECOME A RUSSIAN MILLIONAIRE

MOSCOW, Nov. 16.—Englishmen and Canadians now coming to Russia suddenly find themselves millionaires, in rubles, because of the relative value of rubles compared to dollars or pounds. A hundred dollars is equivalent to several millions of rubles.

The first effect of being a millionaire is to make the stranger haggle over the prices of commodities, which seem tremendously high to him. It takes him a few weeks to realize a million rubles is not very much money, and everybody in Russia who has anything at all is a millionaire just like himself.

A small shopkeeper has a daily turnover of 20,000,000 to 30,000,000 rubles. Even the boys who drive cabs or sell cigarettes about the railway stations are millionaires, handling one million to two millions daily. A million is referred to as a "lemon," so little is it esteemed.

Being wealthy in Russia is very much of a burden. The newly rich carry their money in satchels or handbags. It is so bulky a whole valise full of it is needed for a journey of a few days.
