BOWSER SAYS HAS EVIDENCE

Inquiry into Doings of Game Board Has Been Resumed—Important Witnesses.

VICTORIA, Dec. 29.—The Game Board inquiry before Magistrate Henry Shaw acting as a royal commission has resumed its session.

Hon. W. J. Bowser, leader of the opposition in the legislature, took the stand and said that he would give the names of several men capable of submitting expert evidence to prove that the charges laid by H. H. Pooley, member for Esquimalt, against Dr. A. R. Baker were correct. Mr. Bowser preferred not to give the names of these men at the inquiry because they would be subjected to interference if they were known.

Mr. Pooley also gave evidence along this line and said that he was prepared to prove all the charges which he had made.

It is understood that the witnesses referred to will be subpoenaed.

M. B. Jackson, M.P.P. for the Islands, and W. G. McMillan, superintendent of the provincial police, were also examined.

A few men are employed on ditching work throughout the city.

MEIGHEN'S ACT IS HIGHHANDED

So Declares Mackenzie King Regarding Making Vacancy and New Election in Grenville.

OTTAWA, Dec. 29.—Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, premier elect, has bitterly condemned what he describes as "the high handed action" of Hon. Arthur Meighen, premier, in issuing writs for the election in Grenville County, Ontario, where the defeated premier, it is understood, is seeking to be re-elected. Mr. Mackenzie King said that he had had no knowledge of such action until he had seen the report in a newspaper.

The premier elect said that Mr. Meighen's last act as premier like his first would go down in history as one of usurpation in defiance of the expressed wishes of the people. He had apparently given A. G. Casselman, the member elect for Grenville, a job in the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment so that he could create a vacancy for himself.

Future British Monarch Opens Calcutta Memorial In Honor Queen Victoria

CALCUTTA, Dec. 29.—In spite of threats of boycott and cool receptions, the visit of the Prince of Wales in India is proving a highly successful and the future King of Britain is gaining a warm place in most of the hearts of the people of India. His pleasing personality and his boyish grace are making him very popular among all the people, both English and native, and the attempts at passive resistance towards him launched in some quarters are failing by the way. The proceedings of his reception are free from untoward incidents or demonstrations.

The ceremony of opening the Victoria Memorial here in honor of the Prince's illustrious great-grandmother, the late Queen Victoria, was a pleasing manifestation of the reception being accorded him. The affair took place amid scenes of splendor and enthusiastic and cheering crowds were in attendance. The magnificent edifice took fifteen years to build and is of great architectural beauty.

Although Report that Dail Eireann Had Accepted It Is Unofficial.

DUBLIN, Dec. 29.—Reports of a secret meeting of the Dail Eireann resulting in a decision to ratify the Anglo-Irish treaty are unconfirmed. Inquiries elicit the information that the situation remains much the same as it was before. There is, however, a strong feeling among the Sinn Fein classes of Ireland in favor of ratification. Various organizations of public and semi-public nature have demonstrated this in voluntary votes that have been passed favoring the pact.

Believe Ratification Safe.

LONDON, Dec. 29.—The majority of English newspaper correspondents in Ireland see in the growing volume of sentiment for peace treaty an indication that the ratification will go through easily soon after the Dail Eireann reconvenes next Tuesday. The constant increase in the number of expressions of public opinion in favor of the treaty is emphasized by the correspondents.

SEATTLE, Dec. 29.—Coming back in top form, Vancouver last night defeated Seattle by a score of 5 to 0 in the Pacific Coast Hockey League fixture.

Was Brilliant Win.

"Smoky" Harris and his hard boring pals on the Vancouver forward line proved too much for the Metropolitans and the result was that they were swamped in the five to nothing score.
