ANOTHER ROAD TO WATERFRONT

If City Connects Up Near Seal Cove Likely Government Will Make Road.

A. L. Carruthers, provincial government engineer, and some of his staff yesterday made a trip over the streets of Section 8 leading towards the government reserve, on which the Seal Cove Marine Ways is now located, with a view to ascertaining where a street leading from the city to this reserve would come out. When such a street is built it would be likely that the government would make a connecting road on its own property to connect up any industrial plants that might establish there and it is likely that the proposed road from Prince Rupert to Port Edward would lead out that way.

The local provincial engineer intends to make a trip over the proposed route of the Port Edward route in the course of a few days.

The public works department seems to favor a route to this property by way of Eleventh Ave., Justin or Immanuel streets and Canada Avenue, while Mayor Rochester is in favor of the Eighth Avenue route. The crossing of the railway right-of-way is the main hindrance to the latter route which has a much more convenient grade. There are several rugged cliffs and bluffs that would restrict the Eleventh Ave. route.

The government reserve surrounds a fine natural bay which it is felt would make a better anchorage for fish boats than Cow Bay and fish boat repair work and winter laying up might be centralized there. The main drawback to the using of the bay now is the lack of a road connecting it with the city.

HAD RHEUMATISM FOR FIVE YEARS

No Return of the Trouble Since Taking "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MR. JOHN E. GUILDERSON
P. O. Box 123, Parrsboro, N. S.

"I suffered with Rheumatism for five years, having it so badly at times I was unable to get up without assistance. I tried different medicines I saw advertised and was treated by doctors in Amherst, also in my home town, but the Rheumatism came back.

In 1916, I saw in an advertisement that 'Fruit-a-tives' would stop Rheumatism, and took one box and got relief; then I took them right along for about six months and the Rheumatism was all gone and I have never felt it since.

Anyone who would care to write me as regards 'Fruit-a-tives' I would be glad to tell them what 'Fruit-a-tives' did for me."

GORD STANDARD ESTABLISHED

That is Aim of Meeting Held in London Recently

LONDON, Mar. 5.—Need or restoration of gold standard in Great Britain was emphasized at a meeting of the Sound Currency Association recently held here.

Sir George Paish, financial expert who visited the United States about a year ago, said the financial position of this country would not be sound until the gold standard was restored. "We could then be able to pay for things we require from other countries in goods and services without needing credit operations and without fearing the gold drain from this country," he said. "The gold standard of Europe must also be reestablished. We will not be able to resume the gold standard here until we are able to put out new capital abroad to the extent of £300,000,000."

D. M. Mason, who presided, said the Chancellor of the Exchequer had estimated that he would have at the end of the fiscal year, a surplus of £234,000,000 which he proposed to use for the reduction of the public debt.

Mr. Mason suggested that if £50,000,000 or £100,000,000 were set aside for the purpose of gradually redeeming the redundant currency, in a comparatively short time there would be parity of exchange between Great Britain and the United States and other gold standard countries.

LORD BEAVERBROOK DISCUSSES SUCCESS

Judgment, Industry and Health Are Three Necessaries No Bar to Advancement.

LONDON, March 5.—Lord Beaverbrook, writing in the "Sunday Express," discussed the qualities which make for success.

"For my own part," he stated, "I speak of the only field of success I know—the world of ordinary affairs. Success is partly a matter of predestination and partly of free will. You cannot make a genius, but you can either improve or destroy it, and most men and women possess the assets which can be turned into success."

"The qualities which make for success are three: Judgment, Industry and Health, and perhaps the greatest of these is Judgment. Genius goes to the heart of a matter like an arrow from a bow, but judgment is the quality which learns from the world what the world has to teach and then goes one better."

"But judgment may prove a sterile capacity if it is not accompanied by industry."

"The dominions of the British Empire abolished long ago the privileges which birth confers. No bar has been set there to prevent poverty rising to the heights of wealth and power, if the man were found equal to the task."

"The same development has taken place in Great Britain today. Men are no longer born into Cabinets; the ladder of education is rapidly reaching a perfection which enables a man born in a cottage or a slum to attain the zenith of success and power."
