

LOCAL NEWS NOTES

Roy Chenoski, James Garlick and James Wood are leaving on the steamer Cardena tomorrow for Vancouver on a two-weeks' holiday.

Alexander Gooch was fined $50 by Magistrate McClymont in city police court this morning on a charge of having liquor in an inn; other than in a private guest.

Another enjoyable dance was held Saturday night in the hall on Second Avenue by the Canadian Labor Defence League, a good-sized crowd being in attendance. Music was furnished by members of the League and the ladies brought refreshments.

No word had been received up to an early hour this afternoon as to the time of arrival of C.P.R. steamer Princess Louise, scheduled to call here this afternoon southbound from Skagway to Vancouver. The vessel has been delayed on account of having a heavy freight cargo to discharge at Skagway and is not expected to arrive before tonight or tomorrow morning.

Taxi 35—Ernie Large. Cash is worth a good deal to us. See our special subscription offer.

J. T. Harvey left on this morning's train for a trip to Smithers on legal business.

Mr. and Mrs. James Currie, who have been paying a visit to Vancouver, returned to the city from the south on the Cardena yesterday afternoon.

A change in train service became effective today whereby trains will leave here for the east at 9:30 instead of 10:30 Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings. There is no change in the times of incoming trains at 9 o'clock Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings.

Taking over the run of the ss. Catala which has suffered boiler trouble, Union steamer Cardena, Capt. Ernest Georgeson, arrived in port at 5:40 yesterday afternoon from the south and sailed at 3 p. m. for Anyox, Stewart and other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow morning southbound.

Miss Helen McAuley of the Prince Rupert General Hospital training school for nurses returned to the city on the Cardena yesterday afternoon following an absence in the south of four months during which time she took course in tuberculosis nursing at Truquille Sanitarium and in dietetics at Vancouver General Hospital.

Union steamer Venture, Capt. J. E. Borden, finally arrived in port at 9 o'clock Saturday night from the south but, because of the fog, did not sail until 5 o'clock yesterday morning on her return to Vancouver and waypoints, being more than twenty-four hours late. The Venture will be taken off the run at the conclusion of this voyage and the Catala will come north in her place this week, the Venture later resuming the service while the Catala is withdrawn to await new boiler installation. The Venture will be given an overhaul this week at Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Vandersluys, who have been on a holiday trip south, returned to the city on the Cardena yesterday afternoon. They took their car with them and motored to California. Mr. Vandersluys is proprietor of the Lacasse Bakery.

Gerald Rushton, traffic assistant for Union Steamship Co. at Vancouver, while coming north from Vancouver aboard the steamer Venture, had the misfortune to break his foot in a fall on the wharf at Haysport cannery in the Skeena River on Saturday. He was taken from the steamer on its arrival here Saturday night and is now a patient in the Prince Rupert General Hospital. Accompanied by Mrs. Rushton, he hopes to be able to leave for Vancouver on the Cardena tomorrow afternoon.
