AIRMAN IS ON HUNGER STRIKE

Captain E. L. Janney Visited Here With Vancouver Excursion in June.

LETHBRIDGE, Sept. 8.—Captain Janney, hunger striker in jail here, refuses to break his 32 days fast. He has already lost 33 pounds weight and his heart is weakening. It may be necessary to resort to forcible feeding shortly.

According to a despatch to the Vancouver Sun from Flint, Michigan, Captain Janney, who visited here with the Vancouver Board of Trade excursion last June, is under arrest in Lethbridge jail at Kitchener, Ontario, charged with obtaining money under false pretences. He has been in jail for 32 days and, according to officials, has eaten no food in that time.

First to Enlist.

Captain Janney is said to have been the first man from Canada to enlist in the Air Force during the war. He had a splendid war record and this summer attempted to establish an aircraft company to carry on commercial trading in the far north. Several months ago he was arrested in Vancouver on charges of obtaining money under false pretences in Alberta and was returned there. Later he embarked on another promotion scheme in Flint, Michigan, and other Eastern cities which led up to his present arrest.

Here in June.

When the Vancouver excursion came here last June, Captain Janney established his popularity with the Vancouver business men by being very much "the life of the party." In Prince Rupert he narrowly averted falling into the hands of the police for a window breaking episode, an incident of one of his "parties." He did not return south on the excursion steamer but spent a few days visiting in Terrace. Wearing a police uniform here he attracted the attention of many citizens.

BOHEMIAN NEW YORK EXPOSED IN FEATURE

Peggy Hyland Stars in Picture at Westholme Theatre Tonight.

"A Girl in Bohemia," the sensational New York stage success, which William Fox has adapted for the screen and presents with Peggy Hyland as the star at the Westholme Theatre tonight, promises to be one of the best offerings that the patrons of the silent drama have witnessed. The dainty and charming star is said to be most happy in her impersonation of Winifred Bryce, the daughter of a college professor, whose ambition to write a novel of so-called Bohemian life takes her from her simple home to the artists' section of the big city. Her adventures amid the Bohemian set of New York are amusing, interesting and full of dramatic situations.

William Fox has surrounded Miss Hyland with a cast of perfect balance, including Josef Swickard, L. C. Shumway, Betty Schade, Edward Cecil, Melbourne McDowell and Winter Hall.

The play from which this production was made was written by H. B. Daniel, and its run in New York was an unbroken succession of crowded houses.

After the show try the Good Eats for Deep Apple Pie with velvet ice cream, only 20c. tf

LEAVES FOR TORONTO

Surprise Party for Mrs. Jack Beattie and Presentation by W. M. S. of Church.

A pleasant surprise party took place last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Beattie, Fifth Avenue, when a large number of neighbors and friends dropped in to bid adieu to Mrs. Beattie, who with her son Jimmie is going east for the winter.

The party that took possession had a most enjoyable time at cards and music and refreshments were served about midnight.

Mrs. Beattie is leaving on Saturday morning for Toonto where she will spend the winter with Mr. Beattie's sister, Miss Mabel Beattie, who formerly lived in this city. Her home is at Willowdale, a suburb of the Ontario capital.

Yesterday at a meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church Mrs. Beattie was presented with a life membership in the society as a recognition of the good work she has done in connection with that organization.

Little Nellie told little Anita what she terms only a fib.

Anita—A fib is the same as a story and a story is the same as a lie.

Nellie—No, it is not.

Anita—Yes; it is, because my father said so, and my father is a professor at the university.

Nellie—I don't care if he is. My father is an editor and he knows more about lying than your father.—Exchange.
