ENTRIES ARE COMING IN RAPIDLY FOR FAIR

Secretary May Refuse Local Exhibits if Not Entered by Saturday Night.

While sports and attractions holding the spotlight as far as the Fair is concerned, the business of taking entries is going along steadily. Many exhibits have been entered and several heavy exhibitors have sent in their papers already. Local entries close on Saturday night and after that time the accepting of them rests with the discretion of the secretary. It is highly desirable that all people in the city who intend to exhibit should submit their entries before Saturday night so that when the rush of outside exhibits comes in next week no inconvenience will be caused either to local or outside exhibitors.
