Ensure Your Boy an Education

Boys with a public school education in after life earn $688 per annum on the average. Boys with a high school training earn $1556 on an average. It has been shown that for every day of high school work boys afterward received a compensation of nine dollars. Figures carefully prepared by the American Bureau of Education show that a youth with a college training has 800 times as many chances of success as one without schooling. A Mutual Policy will guarantee your boy an education. The Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada

FINE CONCERT HIGH SCHOOL

Poich Memorial School Assembly Hall Was Crowded for Occasion Last Evening.

The large assembly hall of the Poich Memorial School was filled to capacity last night by the audience of two or three hundred persons which heard the term closing concert of the High School students. In the neighborhood of seventy-five pupils took part in the various numbers on the program and the entertainment provided did them and their teachers great credit. The splendid manner in which the items were presented reflected careful after-hour training and rehearsal which must have been going on for some time. Everything went off well and smoothly and some of the performances were of exceptional merit. All in all, the concert provided a most enjoyable evening's entertainment.

The numbers were varied and most of them being of a humorous or light nature they provided fitting Christmas gloom dispensers. The concert marks the closing of the fall term which concludes on Friday next for the holiday season. Principal Brady and Miss McDonald, Miss McCaffery and Miss Ryan, members of the staff, were responsible for the training of the pupils in most of the numbers, while Professor H. A. Pryce handled the training for the Geisha Choruses which proved a delightful feature.

School Orchestra.
The opening number was a selection by the High School orchestra which comprises Miss Norma Tide, Miss Vera Shockley, Howard Frizzell and Lee Gordon. The young instrumentalists were good indeed and show great promise.

There were several dance numbers by girls and boys, the dancing of the latter dressed in country girls' costumes proving most amusing. A pantomime, "The Cat Family and the Rat," was a clever item, the five students taking part being well disguised in animal costumes. The parts were taken by Miss Alice Pillsbury, Miss Eileen Stephens, Alex Mitchell, Sam Joy and Peter Black.

Miss Gwen Morgan and Miss Grace Leek recited in costume a delightful dialogue, "The Old Maids."

Geisha Choruses.
The choruses from the Geisha proved the "pieces de resistance" of the program. Eight boys in naval uniforms and eight girls dressed as Japanese comprised the choruses the members of which sang and danced in regular operatic manner. Miss Marjorie Lancaster and Miss Irene Carter in the solo roles proved promising vocalists and their singing was excellent. Among the Geisha Choruses were "The Royal Navy" and "Jolly Jack Tars."

The Commercial Class put on a two act farce which was carried out in true stage manner. The number was made doubly attractive by the adding of local color to it. Those taking part were Miss Vera Shockley, Miss Constance McMullin, Miss Nellie Gurvich, Miss Eva Cavalier, Miss Sundae Calderone, Miss Annie Kelly, Alfred Shockley and Carl Gustafson.

Other Numbers.
Lee Gordon rendered a very acceptable violin solo and Teddy Tide, posing as an ex-student gave an oration on oratory. A Hunting Song by boys, in which Howard Frizzell, Willie Kergin and Willie Mitchell took the solo roles, proved a delightful number. Another pretty chorus rendered by girls was one in which Miss Olga Kask and Miss Irene Carter sang in duet. In the course of the evening Principal Brady read excerpts from the "School Magazine." They recorded the school doings and being abundantly interspersed with humorous references, provided the audience with many minutes of mirth. The "School Magazine" appears to be a very interesting journal indeed. The closing number was "The Three Fishers" in which all the performers of the program took part. The singing of the National Anthem brought the concert to a close shortly after ten o'clock.

Miss Lorna Tide was the accompanist of the evening, Miss Pete Tremayne relieving her for the drills.

SMITHERS

Work on the installation of the electric light system for the town is going ahead rapidly and it is expected it will be in operation shortly after the New Year.

The big Oddfellows' ball held here last week was one of the most successful social events ever recorded in Smithers. There were 250 persons in attendance some coming from Telkwa and Hazelton and other outside points.

A Chinese store owned by Quoy Chong was destroyed by fire last Saturday. The loss was $16,000 and the insurance expired two weeks ago.

J. A. Wilson, teacher at South Bulkley, has resigned his position there and will take up his duties on the Smithers staff after the New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. Greenhaigh left last week for the Old Country where they will visit relatives and friends for a couple of months.

Miss White, formerly of the Hazelton Hospital, is here relieving Miss Smith of the Bulkley Valley Hospital. Miss Smith left last week for Vancouver.
