FIRE INSURANCE is a hobby of ours. We take keen pleasure in making sure that all policies are so written that they cover your property exactly as you intend. If you entrust your fire insurance to careless, inexperienced or ignorant agents you may find, when you come to collect your fire loss, that your policies are so worded that the insurance company is not liable and so will not pay the loss. Why take chances?

The Peerless Gift

Without an equal as a gift for Christmas—lasting in beauty and permanent in value—the gift that is surer of appreciation than any other—is a Birks' Diamond. This Christmas, give that Birks' Diamond you have often thought of. A Birks' Diamond is the perfect gift—its quality is the standard of perfection. NOMINATIONS IN EDMONTON

Four Candidates for Mayorality and Nineteen for City Council.

EDMONTON, Dec. 10.—Thirty-five nominations as candidates to take part in the forthcoming municipal elections were handed to City Clerk Cox. There were four for the mayorality, nineteen for the city council, eight for public school trustees, and four for separate school trustees. As there are four vacancies on the separate school board, the four candidates were duly elected.

The crop of candidates was larger than anticipated owing to the fact that civic matters had been obscured lately by the larger issues of the federal election. Probably the greatest surprise was furnished by Ald. McCoppen coming along at the last moment and handing in his nomination for the mayorality. This made four candidates for the office of chief magistrate—the present mayor (D. M. Duggan), Ald. McArthur, A. Stimmler and Ald. McCoppen.

Mayorality—W. C. McArthur, Samuel J. McCoppen, David M. Duggan and A. Stimmler.

Aldermen—Lyman Theophilus Barclay, A. Boileau, Hyman King, Archie Rendell, Mrs. A. S. Taylor, S. D. Walker, Kenneth A. Blatchford, A. U. G. Bury, T. P. Malone, E. T. Murray, Bickerton Pratt, Mrs. W. J. Ross, C. Y. Weaver, James East, J. W. Findlay, E. E. Hyde, Mrs. Mary A. Cantin, G. I.

ATTITUDE OF JEWS

TOWARDS OUTSIDERS

Purposes had come from Jewish pocketbooks. The Jew gives of himself generously and asks only that common justice be granted him to live his life. Anti-Semitism has thrown many Jews back centuries and made them crawl into their shells; others, the braver, it has determined that their service shall be more generous than ever before. With a moiety of Jewish money feeding the hungry, educating the ignorant, healing the sick and bringing light into dark places, with a splendid devotion of Jewish brains to the problems of all humanity, social, scientific, literary and economic—efforts of the Jew for the world more than for himself. Non-sectarian work done with the aid of Jewish money and Jewish brains is the best reply which we can make to anti-Semitism and its mad advocates. Anti-Semitism certainly hurts the Jew, both directly and indirectly; but it is even more harmful to the Anti-Semite. In all Jewish literature no particulars can be found to the foul and vicious utterances of the modern anti-Semite who time and again has advised his hot-spurs to crush every Jewish skull upon which he can lay hold.
