BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

NEW WHARF AT ALICE ARM IS NEARLY BUILT

Contractor W. T. Muse and Diver D. Brennan Arrived Last Night for Holidays.

W. T. Muse, the local contractor who is building the new Dominion Government wharf at Alice Arm, and his diver, Captain Dave Brennan, returned last night on the Venture to spend the Christmas holidays in the city. Mr. Muse will return north on Sunday night by the same steamer.

In spite of adverse weather conditions, Mr. Muse reports that good progress has been made on the new wharf. The work has been of a difficult nature and blasting underwater has been necessary to get footings for the piles. The diver has been kept busy all the time and it has been harder to work during the recent cold snap for the arm is frozen over almost down to the Taylor Engineering Company's wharf which is 500 yards or so above the government wharf. However, there now remain only three more piles to drive and then will follow the laying of the decking, the putting in of the fender piles and the building of the warehouse. It will only take about ten days longer to complete the job.

STILLMAN CASE UP NEXT MONTH

Scene of Trial Will Be Changed Temporarily to Canada for Taking Evidence.

MONTREAL, Dec. 21.—The scene of legal activities in the Stillman divorce case, in which James A. Stillman seeks a divorce from his wife, Annie U., on the grounds of misconduct with Fred K. Beauvais, of Montreal, was shifted to Montreal with the arrival here of John Mack, guardian ad litem for Baby Guy Stillman, whose legitimacy is challenged by the plaintiff.

Mr. Mack will confer with Gonzalve Dessaulniers, K.C., who is acting for the attorneys for Mrs. Stillman and Baby Guy.

He brought with him copies of testimony adduced at the hearings in New York State, and will confer with Mr. Desaulniers on the evidence to be submitted before a Canadian Commission in Montreal, the formation of which was granted by the New York Court.

The Commission, which will open here on January 11, will be headed by a commissioner to be appointed from the local legal profession, it was decided by Justice Morschauser, who is hearing the case in New York. No names were submitted to the court, and the selection will rest entirely with the conducting judge. Evidence heard before the commission will be taken in the form of depositions, signed by the witnesses. This testimony will be forwarded to the court in New York later, where it will be introduced as testimony on behalf of the defendants. The referee of the court will decide then on the admissability of any part of the evidence.

The commission will be an "open" one, in legal phraseology, but it is expected that a ruling barring all but lawyers and witnesses will be asked for. The commissioner will have no judicial power; he will be there just to receive the evidence.

There will be several conferences in Canada prior to the opening of the commission, when evidence will be gone over and witnesses examined. The hearing in Montreal is expected to take considerable time, as some scores of witnesses will be examined.

AMONG the things that don't get you anywhere is wondering how deep the snow will be on Christmas Day.

ONE sweetly solemn thought
Came to me on Monday
I must buy my presents this week
For Christmas Day is Sunday.

* * *

THERE be those who think the world is all wrong, and there be those who don't give a tinker's damoer whether the old world is right or wrong.

* * *

AND then there is the kind of man who wants to make over the world in his own narrow little mould believing he is right and all the rest of the universe is wrong.

ONE of the things to worry over is what will happen to the music on New Year's day if any one should steal the drummer's traps.

HAVE you heard the latest, there is a revolution in Portugal. This is not the last revolution it is simply a new one.

ONCE upon a time there was a man who never lost his rubbers, but that was ages and ages ago.

THERE was a time when a woman did not mind being called old but that was before Adam and Eve happened.

THERE was a young man, he must have been very young, who asked the boss to reduce his salary. That was away back in the year 1950.

"NOT guilty" was the verdict at the murder trial when prisoner said the murdered man had done him a favor and then reminded him of it every day for five years. Defendant said he could not stand a sixth so he killed him.

WHAT we are all wondering this Christmas is whether our Christmas presents will suit our complexion or whether it will be necessary to change the latter.

Miss Eva Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Thomson, arrived today from Vancouver to spend the Christmas holidays at home. Miss Thomson is in the C. N. R. audit office at Vancouver.

Miss Olive Turner arrived today on the Prince Rupert from Vancouver. Miss Turner is on her way to Stewart where she will marry Dr. Bayfield, the physician and surgeon at the Premier Mine.
