ACTIVITIES AT TERRACE

Settlers Still Coming in and Land Being Cleared; Cherries Good Crop.

TERRACE, Aug. 10.—The good work of clearing up the land, cultivating and planting continues here with unabated vigor. Slashing fires and stump fires are everywhere in evidence and there is an era of development that seems to be without limit.

Two settlers from Pouce Coupe, Messrs. Cox and Monsell have just arrived and purchased land preferring this part of the country to the far away Peace River which is without communication and without modern developments.

Fishing in the Skeena River is one of the diversions which also brings profit to those who engage in it. Fine trout are taken as well as salmon. Numerous big catches have come in recently taken even by small boys. Many people still come here looking for land. Not all of them buy, but many who go away will return for most of them are enthused with the prospects.

Among the places that look particularly well this summer are Henry Franks' and Dad Wicks' at Kitsumkalum and Alex Kerr's at Terrace. Henry Defontaine has a wonderful celery crop and there are many other gardens that have done excellently this season. Cherries are a fine crop both the sweet and preserving varieties and will undoubtedly be one of the fruits that will be largely grown in the future.

FINAL VERSES IN THE COMPETITION

Expected That Prize Verses will Be Published on Saturday.

It is expected that the prize verses in the competition will be published on Saturday. A number of them are very good and the judges will have a rather difficult task. Following is the final budget of those submitted:

Not Wanted.
A man, a rod, a shiny hook
A maid, a parasol, a book;
A perfect east with a silken line,
A parasol is in the brine.

A man contrite, a maid's regret
Is that he's got his clothes so wet.
A man, a maid, a parasol,
Don't want a rod or book at all.

Roadless Rupe.
Oh, it's nice to go out camping in
the balmy summer time,
And it's nice to go in swimming
in Salt Lakes limpid brine.

Yes, it's nice to have an outing
but it surely gets my goat,
For you cannot leave Prince Rupert
if you haven't got a boat.

Now the man who owns an auto
and dearly loves a spin,
Is surely up against it with his
little "hunk o' tin".
He may drive about the city,
"Lizzie" hopping like a toad,
But he cannot leave Prince Rupert
for there isn't any road.

The Birch Bark.
If you are a quartet,
Canoeists and all—
And you don't give a care,
For the hurricane or squall,
Take your little birch bark,
And paddle out to sea,
The only way to see a place
Is from "A" to "Zee."

With Your Girlie.
If you're going out for a good
time,
With your girlie on the Bay,
Take along a birch bark,
You can paddle any way!

In the evening in the moonlight,
You can glide along the brine,
In all the little nooks and coves,
And talk about your time!
(P.S.—You light a fire on the beach
The arts of love you learn or teach).

The Man in the Moon SAYS—

WHAT is supposed to be a sound argument is often nothing more than sound.

LIFE is one long picnic in Prince Rupert. Why go to the beach.

HURRAH! Hurrah! said the Misquito to the Flea Hurrah! Hurrah! we'll have a jubilee;
You bite her on the ankle and
I'll bite her on the knee,
As we go marching through Georgia.

THERE are louder things than the War Veterans' Band around this little old town, says a visitor from the south. He knows.

ETERNAL youth is a dream
but the infernal youth is a nightmare.

J. S. Holmes, of Anyox, reached the city last night and is registered at the Hotel Prince Rupert.
