

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

WAS SOCIALIST NOW PREMIER

Head of French Government and Former Premier at Washington Conference.

Aristide Briand, premier of France, who heads the French delegation to the Washington Conference on the Limitation of Armaments, is 59 years old. He was once a socialist leader and helped to guide the destinies of France during the most critical periods of the great war. He was born at Nantes, the big industrial city at the mouth of the Loire, and has served, respectively, as Minister of the Interior, Minister of Justice, Minister of Foreign Affairs, President of the Allied Supreme Council, a member of the War Council and four times as premier of France. He has been called "an intellectual colossus" as well as a political shrewd and few men have wielded such great influence in French public life.

Briand first became a world figure in the Chamber of Deputies as the author of the law providing for separation of church and state in 1906 and for his victory over syndicalism when, by passing the railroads under military law, he called all the workers to the colors and broke the great strike of 1910. He accepted and enforced the principle that "the interests of the whole nation are supreme and must and shall outweigh the interests of any class, section or body."

Rene Viviani.
Rene Viviani, former premier, the second member of the French delegation, was also at one time a socialist leader. He has served as cabinet Minister in several portfolios. He is at present chairman of the League of Nations' Commission to Limit International Armaments.
M. Viviani is no stranger to America. He has visited this country on two occasions, once in 1917 when he came as a member of the French War Mission with General Joffre and again in the spring of 1921 when he was voted the freedom of New York City and visited Colonel Roosevelt's grave.

He is 59 years old and was born in Algiers. Educated in Paris, a lawyer, he was elected to parliament in 1893 and served for many years of that body until Clemenceau appointed him a member of his cabinet. He is famous as an orator.

TRAIL RANGERS AND TUXIS BOYS HOSTS HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Trail Rangers and Tuxis Boys of the Baptist Church entertained the Willing Workers and other girls of the Sunday School at a Halloween party in the church on Wednesday evening. The gathering was a jolly and enjoyable one and dialogues, music and games quickly passed the time. The feature of the program was the shadowgraph, in which Fred McDonald took the leading role. This was a silhouette performance and it provoked much mirth. Arthur Phillips played a violin solo and others taking part in the program were Jack Sutherland, Howard Bibbard, Fred Clarke, Dick Oliver and others. Supper was served and games were played and then a ghost put in an appearance to further amuse the young people.
R. B. Linzey and P. B. Linzey were in charge of the affair.

CHRISTMAS VERSES ARE EASY TO WRITE

Verseifiers Invited to Try Their Hand in McRae Competition.

Verses submitted in the McRae competition should be left at the office of the Daily News as early as possible. The name of the winner of the contest will be published but no others. Verses should be as brief as possible, but length is not an object if the sentiment and metre are right. If you want to earn that five dollar prize, send in the verse at once. It should be suitable for reproduction on a Christmas card sent to a friend from Prince Rupert.

Christmas Greeting.
When your thought afar would stray
Guide them gently on their way;
Let them linger with your friend
Who would now remembrance send.

In Prince Rupert here we dwell
Far from those we love so well;
Yet this Christmas greeting take Cherish it for old time sake.

The Song of the Bells.
"Peace on earth, good will to wards men,"
The Christmas bells peal forth
again.
"Good will towards men, peace and good will,"
With joyous echoes the air
they fill,
And the morning Star, so calm
and bright,
Shines forth upon a wondrous sight,
For Christmas morn is here.

"Peace on earth, good will to
wards men,
Again they peal, and still
again.
Prince Rupert calls to all the world,
And back and forth her words
are hurled,
"Peace on earth, good will to wards men,"
A Merry, merry Christmas
then."

From an Oldtimer.
Just an old line greeting in an
old time way,
Prince Rupert send best wishes for a happy Christmas day.
