Big Settlement Scheme Stuart Lake DEFINITE SCHEME IS BEING DISCUSSED BY IRISH CONFERENCE

James Craig to Consult With Members of Conference Regard to Ulster Boundary

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Sir James Craig, Premier of Ulster, has received the Government invitation to consult as to Ulster's attitude toward the proposals regarding the boundary between Ulster and the south of Ireland. The questions involved in the Irish settlement are to be discussed with Lloyd George and the cabinet committee on one side and the Sinn Fein delegation on the other. The Sinn Fein delegates led by De Valera have submitted specific terms which the Government thinks feasible if the Government of Ulster agrees to them. Sir James has so far taken the stand that there must be no interference with her rights as at present constituted and that no change which changed her status could be considered. Before the meeting of the Sinn Fein delegates with Lloyd George, Sir James Craig expressed a desire to be present in order to discuss the interests of Ulster. This was ignored until such time as a settlement had been arrived at. Specific terms have been arrived at and it seems as if a settlement of the vexed question is in sight.

Thousand Families for Stuart Lake District Arranged by Pattullo

VICTORIA, Nov. 4.—Yesterday Hon. T. D. Pattullo told the Legislature that arrangements had been made through the British Government to bring one thousand families from Great Britain to settle in the Stuart Lake country in Northern British Columbia on a 200,000-acre land reserve north of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway.

While overseas Mr. Pattullo submitted the scheme to Alfred Bigland, chairman of the British parliamentary committee, for the formation of a non-profit-making organization, offering the land for sale to settlers at a classified price, and promising that every dollar obtained from the sale of the land be spent in schools and roads. Oliver Invites Members of Legislature to Bring Out Evidence of Wrongdoing

VICTORIA, Nov. 4.—Premier Oliver yesterday closed the debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne. He promised that definite charges against the Government would be probed. He accused Mr. Bowser of misrepresenting facts and misleading the people. The Government was faced with a big task and confronted with huge financial obligations, but he wished to shelter no wrongdoers.

The Premier said he would not seek to punish his colleagues or Government officials unless evidence of wrongdoing was submitted. He could not suppose a man guilty because no attempt had been made to prove his innocence. He invited the members to speak out if they had actual knowledge of wrong doing.

High Power Wireless at Vancouver to Communicate Direct with Prince Rupert

VANCOUVER, Nov. 4.—The big high-power wireless station, announcement of the building of which was made in the summer by G. J. Desbarats, deputy minister of naval service, during the time of his visit here, is to be erected on the west shore of Lulu Island, it is understood here. This will be the most powerful station on the coast and will be used for long distance messages. So powerful will it be that it is expected to communicate direct with stations as far away as Prince Rupert and Southern Alaska in the north and with Honolulu in the west.

This station is to be the first of a series which will be part of the Empire wireless chain. It is impossible to erect it at Point Grey because of the interference with messages sent by the instrument there now. Experiments have been conducted with a view to securing a site that would show the least possible interference and yet be near enough for telephone communication with the city. Lulu Island is the place chosen, it is believed.

When Mr. Desbarats was in Prince Rupert last summer he stated that the installation of the Point Grey high power station would later be followed by the placing of a similar station at or near Prince Rupert, in order that there might be direct communication between this port and Vancouver by wireless. At present it is necessary to relay messages. This takes time and is expensive and tends to insecurity.
