LADY WRITES OF CONDITIONS IN PETROGRAD

Has Had No Meat for Three Years and No Sugar.

RIGA, Latvia, Nov. 4.—(Associated Press).—After several years of consigned silence, letters are now coming out of Russia from American, English and Russian people of gentle birth who remained and survived the great experiment in human lives in communist Russia. These letters in an impressive way tell the mere task of keeping alive has meant to these persons accustomed, before the revolution, to lives of luxury.

THANKSGIVING MONDAY NEXT

Holiday on That Day and Methodist Church to Celebrate With Supper.

Monday is Thanksgiving Day and there will be the usual general holiday as well as numerous social events of interest. The Methodist church people are making it a special church occasion for they are putting on a supper in the church rooms which will be attended by many of the citizens generally as well as members of the church. The occasion will be marked by the debut of Professor Pryce's student orchestra, a group of instrumentalists, about twelve in number, that has not yet been heard in the city, vocal music and addresses will be among the attractions.

PREMIER MEIGHEN IN SPEECH THAT FAILED

At Beaverton a large crowd had gathered at the station to see Premier Meighen go through on his way to Bracebridge. The Premier was asked by a delegate from the crowd to say a few words.

He consented and announced that it was a surprise and was about to give some political advice, starting with these words: "Now this is the riding of North Ontario," when the train moved away. He waved to the crowd and laughed, but the people were somewhat indignant. Some of them saw the humor of the situation.

When the Prime Minister was speaking to the schoolboys at Bracebridge the train did the same thing, and the Prime Minister's remarks were again cut short.

Lloyd George on Life Insurance for Salaried Men

"The willingness to take risks is, in the great merchant or capitalist, a virtue. It is to him that courage is to a soldier, or imagination to a poet. But the willingness to take risks is in the wage-earner a weakness, yes, even a vice. The contrary of the virtue of thrift, and the system of life insurance has given the thrifty man his opportunity."

The Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada

Agents, Prince Rupert, B.C.

"In three years, I have not heard from any of my friends, the dearest I have in the world. They must be greatly astonished at my having so far survived all these horrors, at my years, when thousands of younger people are daily dying of starvation and unrelieved hardships."

Food is Need.
It was most kind and thoughtful of you to send that money, I only hope it may arrive. For of course, although I work seven to eight hours a day (official translation work, comparatively well paid) the economic conditions are so monstrous that it is impossible to earn anything near enough for the very bare necessities of life. No wonder when butter and sugar are 25,000 rubles a pound.

"Therefore, what I need more even than money is food, the plainest articles of food. These three years I and my faithful companion, for many years my maid, but for whom I should certainly not be living today, have subsisted on black rye-bread and water, porridge and gruels, drinking our so-called 'tea' and 'coffee' (sorry surrogates) without milk and sugar, with black bread, well salted. We have forgotten what bread is like, and as for eggs, I should like to see one before I die."

No Meat in Years.
Now the assistance I would crave of you is simply this: From time to time send me food. We have not seen meat for three years, and for pity's sake send sweets, and sweets, but most especially candy and chocolates. Do not laugh at me, just imagine, three years without sugar or anything sweet. The longing for sweets at times becomes absolutely morbid.

"One thing more, and an essential one; send two or three candles. We are given electricity only for a couple of hours. Kerosene or candles are not to be had any more for any amount of money, so we have no means of striking a light during the dark hours of night, which is not only extremely uncomfortable, but may on occasion be a real danger."

Their way to their home in Winnipeg. Mr. Gilmore spent several months in the city in connection with his duties as representative of the Grand Trunk Pacific Development Co. and made a number of friends during that time. On Wednesday evening a number of them gave a delightful little party in the St. Regis dining room in his honor.

STRONG MAN IN KING CABINET

Hon. Rudolph Lemieux is Outstanding Figure in Canadian Political Life.

OTTAWA, Nov. 4.—(By Canadian Press).—Hon. Rudolph Lemieux, K.C., B.C.L., L.L.D., with 25 years of service in the House of Commons, is, irrespective of party, one of the outstanding figures in parliament. First elected to the House of Commons for the constituency of Gaspé in 1896 he has been a member of the House ever since. Hon. Mr. Lemieux was re-elected in the general elections in 1900 and was chosen by acclamation in 1904 and was again elected acclamation in the same year on his appointment as solicitor general. In this by-election he was also elected in Nicolet by a majority of 342. In the general elections in 1911 Mr. Lemieux was defeated in Gaspé but was elected in Rouville having accepted two nominations. At the general election in 1917 he was elected in both Maisonneuve and Gaspé.

Under the Laurier government Mr. Lemieux held the posts of solicitor general, postmaster general, and eventually became minister of marine and fisheries on August 11, 1911, in succession to Hon. L. P. Broderick. Mr. Lemieux retired from office with the Laurier government on October 6, 1911. During his parliamentary career Mr. Lemieux has gained for himself a splendid reputation as a speaker and parliamentarian, and it is frequently rumoured in political circles that he will be one of the strong men in the cabinet should the Liberals secure power.

Club Member.
Mr. Lemieux is a member of the Eighty Club of the Liberal National Club, London, England. In addition to many clubs and associations in Canada. In recognition of his services in promoting better and closer relations between France and Canada, the French government in March 1906 created him a knight of the Legion of Honor and later an officer of that order. In 1907 Mr. Lemieux acted and in 1910 represented Canada at the inauguration of the parliament of the Dominion of South Africa. In 1918 he was elected president of the Royal Society of Canada.

Mr. Lemieux was born in Montreal, November 1, 1866 and was educated at Nicolet College and Laval University. In his early days Mr. Lemieux engaged in active journalistic work but practically gave this up when he was called to the bar in 1891. In 1896 Mr. Lemieux was appointed to the Law Faculty of Laval University and lectured on the History of Canadian Law until 1906.

On Sunday there will be special thanksgiving services. The Church is being decorated for the occasion with fruit, flowers and vegetables and in the evening there will be a special musical service under the direction of E. V. Ling. The choir, including several chorists and the soloists will include Mrs. Stanley Bennett, A. Clapperton and F. Dibb.

H. Whittaker, government architect, who has been inspecting the work on the new provincial government court house here, returned last night on the Prince Rupert to Vancouver.

CATARRH of the Stomach FOR EIGHT YEARS

The cause of this trouble is the fermentation of food in the stomach which generates a gas that is very frequently belched up. There is also a rumbling of the bowels and a discharge of gas therefrom, there is constant retching, and the stools are frequently vomited. There is a burning pain in the stomach, the appetite is feeble, the tongue coated, the breath bad, constipation is generally present and the sufferer becomes weak, nervous, depressed and exceedingly irascible.

"The blame with a sluggish liver, as it holds back the bile which is so necessary to promote the movement of the bowels and when the bile gets into the blood a badly disordered condition of the stomach, liver and bowels will surely follow.

Keep your liver active and you will always enjoy good health.

Mrs. Agnes Gallant, Reserve Mines, N. S., writes:—I had been a great sufferer for eight years, from catarrh of the stomach. I tried several so-called catarrh remedies without relief until a friend advised me to try Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills, which I did, and four weeks completely relieved me. That was six years ago, and I have had no return of my old trouble."
