Knows Crops Will be Good But Not Sure About Prices.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 18.—"They charged me 30 cents for one potato on this train at dinner last night, and here I see where some fellow in Vancouver is selling them at 35 cents a sack," complained Hon. John Oliver, premier of British Columbia, as he sat at breakfast in the dining car of a Canadian National trans-continent train approaching Vancouver the other day. All the farmer in the farmer-premier rose at the thought.

"Of course there's service included," suggested a reporter.

"Yes, that reminds me," added the premier, "of the story they used to tell in the old Cariboo days about the man who had to pay a dollar to a Hebrew peddler for a needle."

"What was the point?" inquired the reporter.

"Well, when the miner protested at the price the peddler said: 'Holy Moses, man, I'm giving you the needle as a present; the dollar barely pays the freight,'" and the premier laughed.

Two Men From Department Trade and Commerce on Coast

VANCOUVER, June 20.—Two moving picture men from the Department of Trade and Commerce, E. M. Finn and E. J. Bach, have arrived in Vancouver and will spend the summer along British Columbia's coast taking pictures of every phase of the fishing industry.

When completed, the films will be sent all over the world, and will also be shown throughout Canada and the United States, within the current year. No part of the industry would be missed, said Mr. Finn, his instructions having been to remain in British Columbia four months if necessary to complete the series.

These two photographers spent last summer "taking" the industry on the East coast.

Announcement of the incorporation of the Pacific Sea Products Association, the local fish company, with a capitalization of $100,000 and with head office at Prince Rupert is made in the current issue of the B.C. Gazette.
