Ebert Makes Protest Allies' Action
ASKING DOMINION PARLIAMENT TO PREVENT THE IMPORTATION OF LIQUORGermany Invaded
By Allied ForcesPresident Ebert Issues Proclamation of Protest Against What He Calls
Breach of Terms of Treaty of Peace

AVENGE, March 8.—The armies and navies combined today in the occupation of German cities, following the refusal of Germany to accede to the reparation proposals of the Allies.

British, French and Belgian troops entered Düsseldorf this morning and at noon French and Belgian soldiers occupied Düsseldorf.

The Rhine flotilla of the Allies took possession of Ruhrort.

BERLIN, March 8.—President Ebert of Germany in a proclamation declares Germany is not in a position to use force to prevent the forcible methods of the Allies in occupying additional territory, but protests against the "open violation of the terms of peace."

Ebert further said: "Our opponents imposed an unheard of and impossible of fulfillment. The work of a generation will have sufficed to carry out the contract. We must not comply. Our honor and self respect forbid. Be patient, but the Imperial Government won't rest until the foreign yields before our right."

Little Turks and refugees from the Crimea are seen standing by a quaint little roadside cemetery in Scutari, near the hospital where Florence Nightingale nautical the Red Cross movement by caring for the British soldiers who were wounded in the Crimean War. Interesting Turkish tombstones may be seen in the picture.

Premier Hughes Likely
Will be Defeated and be Succeeded by A. Fisher

LONDON, March 8.—A despatch received here from Sydney, New South Wales, says it is possible Premier Hughes of Australia may find himself out of office soon, as public feeling is going against his government and himself.

It is likely he will be defeated and he may be succeeded by Andrew Fisher, the retiring high commissioner to Great Britain.

POPE BENEDICT IS AGAINST VIOLENCE
AS IN IRELAND

ROME, March 8.—Pope Benedict in an allocution said there had been an appalling violence and crime in Ireland in contradiction to the laws of morality, "crimes which we condemn by whichever side committed."

SIXTY MILLION DOLLARS LOSS
ON RAILWAYS

Estimates for Government Operation of Roads will be Very Heavy

OTTAWA, Mar. 8.—It is understood that expenditure on the Canadian National Railways will figure largely in the main estimates to be tabled in the House of Commons today or tomorrow. It is stated that last year's operation resulted in a loss of $60,000,000, including interest charges on the Canadian National and Grand Trunk Pacific.

FEW SMALL HALIBUT
BOATS SOLD CATCHES

Ten Cars Available Today in Railway Yards is Adequate for Light List Arrivals.

A few small boats were in for this morning's fish sale. Today there are seven cars in the yards and three more are due tonight, so there are plenty to handle today's business.

Following were today's fish arrivals and sales:

Norfolk, 10,000 pounds, and Thelma, 15,000 pounds, sold to the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. at 16.1c and 6c.

H. & R., 5,000 pounds, and Pelican, 9,000 pounds, sold to the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. at 15.3c and 6c.

All-atross sold 22,000 pounds to the Pacific Fisheries at 16.1c and 6c.

RUPERT BACK
ABOUT MAY 1

Capt. Nicholson Says the Prince George Will Overhaul Immediately She is Relieved.

Capt. C. H. Nicholson, manager of the Canadian National steamships on this coast, is in the city today, having arrived on the Princess Mary yesterday. This morning he was at the dry dock in connection with the repairs to the Prince John which is on the ways there undergoing overhaul. He will be in the city until Thursday night.

Speaking of the service between this city and Vancouver, Captain Nicholson said the Prince Rupert would be back on the run about May 1 and the George would then be overhauled and the double service would be commenced soon afterwards.

The Prince Albert is at present attending to the business between here and the islands and also to Stewart.

Ald. McNeill introduced a motion at last night's council meeting for the return of 2,234 feet of city steel rails that Nick Gurvich has at his coal mine in Altona. The resolution did not pass. The council but the board of works has the matter in hand and will bring in a report.

Premier Oliver Introduces Motion Regarding Importation

Says Success of Moderation Measure Depends on Enactment of Federal Legislation Giving Province Monopoly of Importation

VICTORIA, March 8.—Unless the Dominion authorities supplement the provincial liquor measure by enacting legislation preventing importation into British Columbia except by the Provincial Government, which the new measure is designed to enact, government control and sale will fail of success, is the argument advanced by Premier Oliver in the Legislature in support of his motion calling upon the House to request the Dominion Government at the present session to pass such legislation.

The Premier said that such federal legislation would not only more be an infringement upon personal liberties or individual freedom than other legislation, it was imperative that present import operations must cease if the British Columbia measure is to prove workable.

The debate was adjourned by W. J. Bowser who will speak on it next.

Liquor Measure.

The liquor measure was discussed for four hours yesterday in committee but little actual progress was made. There was criticism of the proposed sale in kegs, barrels or casks, sale to roomers in hotels and objection was also taken to the permit system.

To Mr. Bowser's suggestion that the Legislature name a commission and that the price at which liquor be sold be left to the board, the Premier replied that the Government proposed to fix the price and it was a matter of revenue policy.

BOMBARDS
WORKMEN

Cannon Trained on Quarters Of Workers Kill Several Hundred.

LONDON, March 8.—More than 200,000 men are on strike in the city of Moscow. During the bombardment of the workmen's quarters by artillery placed on the hills overlooking the city, several hundred were killed and many wounded.

HOCKEY FINALS
ARE NEXT WEEK

Vancouver and Seattle to Play off As Result of Last Night's Game.

VANCOUVER, March 8.—The final play off in the professional hockey championship series on the Pacific coast takes place next week. Yesterday Vancouver beat Victoria by a score of 5 to 0, thus bringing Seattle and Vancouver together and these two teams will have to play the championship game.

GOVERNMENT KEPT
INFORMED OF MOVES
ALLIES AND GERMANY

OTTAWA, March 8.—Premier Meighen announced in the House of Commons that the Government is being kept informed of the proceedings in connection with difficulties between the allies and Germany.

SHIPYARD
CASE MAY BE SETTLED

Asking Court to Set Date of Appeal.

VANCOUVER, March 8.—(Special)—R. L. Reid, K. C., asked the court to set the date for hearing the appeal by the Dominion Government against the order giving the Prince Rupert drydock equipment to the creditors. An agreement, however, may be reached before the hearing is called.

KERGIN SEES UNFRIENDLY DISPOSITION

Objects to United States Not Permitting Liquor Through Alaskan Territory.

VICTORIA, March 8.—The report that the United States will prohibit the transit of intoxicating liquor to cross Alaskan territory to points within British Columbia, H. F. Kergin, member for Atlin, sees an unfriendly act on the part of the States. He directed a number of questions in connection therewith to the attorney-general at yesterday's session.

LIQUOR CONTROL
MAY PASS QUICKLY

Interest Centres in the Proposed Amendment on Beer Clause.

VICTORIA, March 8.—There is fair possibility that the new liquor control bill will be passed by the Legislature at the end of this week. It is now ready for discussion in committee.

The beer clause remains the centre of interest and it is unknown how the members will vote on it.

VANCOUVER, Mar. 8.—More than 1,000 worth of opium was seized from the crew of the Empress of Russia yesterday. The crew had been in port some on the Orient and was on the dock when the seizure was made.

ELECTION CLUB
OVER MEMBERS

That is How Premier Drury Keeps Legislature in Line.

TORONTO, March 8.—Premier Drury is finding it difficult work steering the provincial affairs through a legislature which is almost equally divided. He holds over them the club of a threat of an early election and none of the members want to go back to the country just yet and incur the expense of another election. They cannot afford it.

In that way the farmer premier carries on but he has to move with astuteness and care and every step he takes is watched. If the opposition could get a good election cry, he would be driven from power any day.

AMBUSHERS SEEM TO GET WORST OF FIGHT

Three Killed at Mullinchoo and Twenty Captured

DUBLIN, Mar. 8.—Four persons were killed in engagements between Crown forces and Sinn Feiners in Southern Ireland last night. A lorry was ambushed at Bailliprobe and a captain and two privates were wounded.

At Mullinchoo a battle between the police and Sinn Feiners took place when three civilians were killed and twenty captured, while a civilian was killed at Toome and a policeman was killed at Rillmabook.

MANSON COMPLIMENTED

VICTORIA, Mar. 8.—Mr. Bowser paid a striking tribute to Hon. A. M. Manson. He stated he wished to express the satisfaction which members on the Opposition side felt at the fair rulings given by Mr. Speaker. Never before had he sat for three weeks in his seat without rising about decisions of the chair, he stated.
