No Change in House of Commons.

The returns for the two by-elections in eastern Canada, York-Simbury, New Brunswick, and Yamaska, Quebec, will not change the standing of the parties in the House of Commons. In the former county a Unionist will be the representative while in the latter the Liberal is chosen, respectively as was the case before. In York Simbury the government candidate was elected over the farmer, the Liberal party having no candidate. In a three-cornered fight at Yamaska, the Liberal was successful by a strong majority over both farmer and Unionist. These elections really have little significance on the political situation in Canada for both seats were strongholds for the successful party candidates returned in each case, so much so that in one of them the Liberals did not contest the seat.

France Appears Friendly to Germany.

Germany is about to pay the reparation that has been set by the Allies for the four years of horrors in Europe which she caused. The Wirth administration, which is now governing Germany, seems to bear a vestige of sincerity which has been lacking in so many of the governments of the country. This must be so for Premier Briand of France has officially recognized it and told the Chamber of Deputies last week that he favored giving it a chance. The statement was supported by the chamber which voted confidence in Briand. This is the nearest show of amicable feeling towards Germany which France, her traditional foe, has shown for a long time. Premier Briand realizes that the Allies must show a spirit of charity and in this he manifests his good sense. However, this charity must be tempered with watchfulness for the Allies, and especially France, cannot forget the treachery that Germany has in the past displayed.

Are Real Criminals Being Punished?

At the same time as Germany is making her money payments to the Allies, her individual soldiers are being tried at Leipzig for crimes which they perpetrated during the war. In dealing with these war criminals the High Court is showing leniency and this is being done, no doubt, because the adjudicators feel that many of these German soldiers did deeds in the course of the war that perhaps they might not have committed had it not been for the authorities that demanded them. The eradication of such authority is the matter that in the future will have to be seen to. While soldiers from the ranks of the German army will be punished, probably some of the leaders, on whom punishment should fall, will go free. Therefore the punishments will be mainly of an exemplary nature.

Germany's Suffering Just Commenced.

Although Germany may pay indemnities and although her soldiers may be punished, replacement of the lives that were lost in the war and some of the property damage can never be atoned for. Germany's great punishment will come in the dealings that she has with her former foes. Distrust, aloofness and such feelings that are manifested towards her in the future will provide further punishment. She will learn that the Allies cannot forget, even if they do treat her with civility and leniency and she will pay for her deeds in this way for many, many years. Truly Germany has a lesson to learn and it will be a hard and severe one, but she has earned it. She will never suffer in such terrible ways as she caused France, Belgium and the other Allies to suffer.

HER CASE SEEMED HOPELESS

But "Fruit-a-tives" Brought Health and Strength

29 St. Rose St., MONTREAL.

"I am writing you to tell you that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-tives'. This medicine relieved me when I had given up hope of ever being well.

I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia—had suffered for years; and nothing I took did me any good.

I read about "Fruit-a-tives" and tried them. After taking a few boxes, of this wonderful medicine made from fruit juices, I am now entirely well."

ATHONS WILL PUT ON WELL KNOWN PLAYS

"Lion and the Mouse" and "Girl of the Golden West" Tonight.

For the beginning of their last week in Prince Rupert, the Athol Stock Co., who have made such a hit with local theatre goers with their clever tabloid productions, will put on tonight in the Westholme Theatre tonight two of the best known plays of modern times.

One of them will be the great world-wide success, "The Lion and the Mouse," which is known as one of the finest plays ever written. There are several tense moments during the action of the play, the big scene where the poor girl gets the best of the world's greatest financier being especially exciting.

David Belasco's "The Girl of the Golden West," one of the best known plays of modern times, will also be put on. With Robert Warwick in the seven-reel feature, "Jack Straw," there will altogether be a fine show. Tomorrow night there will be the greased pig contest and on Thursday the ladies' nail driving and wood sawing contests.

SOCIALIST SPEAKER TALKED UNEMPLOYMENT

Tells of Conditions From Early Part of Nineteenth Century.

R. C. McCutcheon, the Winnipeg labor orator, again addressed the Open Forum of the Central Labor Council last evening, taking "Unemployment" as his subject. He dealt with the condition since the early part of the Nineteenth century and declared that the reasons of religion, commercial treaties and tariffs were false. The real reason for unemployment was that the workers produced more than the markets could absorb. The only method of removing the cause would be the abolition of production for profits. As industry of the present day was owned and controlled by the government the only way to do this would be for labor to wrest the power from the government and use it in its own behalf.

J. H. Burroughs was chairman. Following the address there were many questions asked and answered and it was 10:45 before the meeting broke up.

WANDA HAWLEY AT EMPRESS TONIGHT

"Variety is the Spice of Life" Feature at Empress Tonight

Realart certainly believes in this as regards their young comedienne, Wanda Hawley. For every one of the player's stories has been radically different from the others—and now they are shifting leading men, to give still further variety. Wanda Hawley is not going to get stale with her public—there isn't a chance.

Jerome Patrick is the latest actor to make his appearance opposite the star—succeeding such favorites as Harrison Ford and Ramsey Wallace.

Tall, athletic, and with fascinating wavy brown hair, Mr. Patrick forms a perfect foil to the delicate blonde beauty of Miss Hawley in "Her First Flopement," which comes to the Empress Theatre tonight.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

May 30, 1911

Dan McDonald, at present assistant fire chief at Rossland, was appointed assistant fire chief here last night by the city council at a salary of $125.

There are two applicants for the position of city auditor. They are G. Munroe and David Thompson.

W. D. Vance has been appointed the new secretary of the School Board, taking the place of G. H. Sawle, who is retiring.

John McLeod, of Phoenix, brother of George McLeod, the unfortunate man whose body has just been found near Port Essington, arrived in the city unexpectedly yesterday to seek his brother. He will be in time for the funeral today.

PRINCE RUPERT TIDES

Monday, May 30

High, 7:39 a.m., 15.6 feet.

20:27 p.m., 17.4 feet.

Low, 1:36 a.m., 9.5 feet.

13:42 p.m., 7.8 feet.

Tuesday, May 31

High, 8:48 a.m., 15.6 feet.

21:19 p.m., 18.9 feet.

Low, 2:47 a.m., 8.8 feet.

14:42 p.m., 8.9 feet.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 12th Meridian west.

It is counted from 6 to 24 hours from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.
