SWIMMING CLUB MADE HANDSOME SUM FROM SATURDAY'S TAG DAY

Over $300 was realized on Saturday afternoon by the Swimming Club as a result of a very successful Tag Day.

The drive was managed from the but by Miss Mills, Miss A. B. Marcellus, Miss A. McKinnon and Fred Roberge and early in the morning a crowd of sturdy youngsters, including boys of the Naval Brigade, was on hand. They were started out with tags and collection boxes to hold up the unsmiling pedestrian, stab him with a pin and mulet him of a contribution. There was no doubt that the cause was appealing and if met with good response, for which the club is very grateful.

Among those collecting were: Misses Marjorie Carter, Gwen Morgan, Winnie Parker, Isabel Stewart, Caroline Mitchell, Evelyn Marger, Winnie Exley, Willa Dyer, Laura Stephens, Kathleen Bulger and Amelia Exley, and Masters Reid McLennan, Arthur Cade, Alvin Brochu, Gordon Parkin, Louis Palmore, Gordon Bulger, Lee Gordon, Jack Hilditch, Jimmie Bryant, Elmer Stephens, Ralph Warrior, Stanley Parker, Arthur Kerr, Frank McMullin, David Westaway and Edgar Talarum.

BLASTING WAS DONE YESTERDAY AT LAKES

Dressing Rooms Painted and the Lumber Packed in—Swimmers Also There.

A band of about ten volunteers were on hand at the Salt Lakes yesterday afternoon and further improvements were made at the popular swimming place. The dressing rooms were painted and about 100 feet of lumber was packed up to make further improvements to them.

Besides this there was some blasting done in this end of the lake which is to be used for children and learners. This work was in charge of Jack Plint and Bill Baker.

There were also quite a few people across to enjoy a dip besides the workers. The volunteers were provided with lunches by Mrs. Richmond of the St. Regis Cafe.

Sport Chat

Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavyweight boxer, is rounding into such great condition that Jack Kearns, his manager, has decided to give the title holder a complete rest commencing tomorrow. For four days Dempsey will do no training, but will have complete rest with the exception of such outdoor exercise as he wishes to amuse himself at. The champion is getting into condition almost too rapidly and it is feared that he might over train and be stale for the date of the fight unless he takes things a little easier.

Meanwhile Carpentier, the French champion and challenger, is carrying on his training at Manhasset, Long Island, without abatement. Carpentier's training is not so strenuous as Dempsey's, however, for he has not a great deal of over weight to work off and his main object is to keep his agility and suppleness and practise up on the skill he is said to possess. Carpentier intends to bring results with his cleverness at boxing rather than with brute strength.

Tommy Gibbons, the St. Paul heavyweight, scored his eighth consecutive knock-out on Friday night last at Youngstown, Ohio, when Kod Ray, of Camden, New Jersey, fell foul of his haymaker in the fourth round of a scheduled twelve round bout. The St. Paul boy has been making a sweep of everything he has faced lately and his progress is being watched closely by fight fans who are commencing to wonder where he is going to stop.

The Merchants will line up the following players to meet the Dry Dock in the Junior League football fixture tonight: R. Arthur, Jr.; G. Shaw and J. Garner; J. Davidson, J. Mitchell and L. Astori; H. Foote, F. McKinnon, F. Hardy, E. Clapp and L. Barton. Reserves—Duncan and Thompson.

The Sons of England football team in the league game tomorrow night with the Calles will be chosen from the following players: W. H. Waldorf, S. Darton, H. F. Wearmouth, R. Hay, B. Fanthorpe, E. Grages, H. Fanthorpe, J. Judge, G. P. Tinker, H. M. D. Lambie, J. Farquhar and J. Warren.

The following team will be fielded by the Calles in the senior league football game against the Sons of England tomorrow night: Martin; Kinghorn and Willisroff; Abbott, Murray and Currie; J. M. Campbell, J. Gambell, Boote, Wiggins and Sellars. Spares—Gay and Wilson.
