Take Care of That Cough

Some people get a nasty cough and don't pay much attention to it, saying, "Oh, it will wear away in a short time," but while it may wear off, serious injury may have been done to the lungs and respiratory organs by the prolonged, harsh, racking coughing.

On the first sign of a cough or cold get a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. It will stop that nasty, troublesome cough, ease the tightness across the chest, and loosen the phlegm.

Mrs. Wm. Earnshaw, Apsley, Ontario, writes—"Last winter I caught a bad cold, had a sore throat and a terrible hacking cough that I could not get rid of. I could not sleep at night. I tried quite a few remedies, but they did not do me much good until I got Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. By the time I had taken two bottles, my cough was all gone. I feel that "Dr. Wood's" has no equal."

When you get Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, you are not experimenting with new and untried remedies, but one that has a reputation extending over thirty years.

Put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 35c and 60c, a bottle, manufactured only by The T. S. Wilson Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

The Man in the Moon SAYS--

LEADERS of me are sometimes their wives and sometimes other people's wives and sometimes simply chickens.

THE chicken hearted man is one that sets a chicken turn him aside from the path of rectitude.

THE difficulty these days is to keep down the cost of giving.

I NEVER was an admirer of gum chewing, but it is better than talking without saying anything.

AMONG the things that won't get you anywhere is trying to keep up with the times without reading the Daily News.

IT makes one think June must be already here when you see all your pals slip off the straight and narrow path and getting married.

AMONG the things that do not seem to get you very far may be mentioned reading the printed instructions on how to fill up your income tax forms.

DANCES and parties in this town are rather late, but how late would they be if women had to shave like men.

WHEN a man loses his pep, the world looks blue to him and he begins to see everything askew.

THE worst bore in the world is the man who tells his troubles before they happen. Then there are the women who have so much foresight they always scent trouble in the offing.

THE other day I read this in the Winnipeg-Free Press: "Something will have to be done to get dancing back to a safe and sane basis. For instance, what is to be done about the girl who hangs her chin over her partner's shoulder and allows her face to register the expression of a dying tuna fish wig-wagging signals of distress to its mate?"

ONCE upon a time there was a man went to a banquet to get something to eat and got it. It was a fairy tale.

ONE of the sure signs of spring being here is that the evening train is sometimes ten minutes late.
