COMMEMORATES YPRES BATTLE

Special Service Held at Christ Church, Anyox, on Sunday

ANYOX, April 27.—A goodly number turned out for the commemorative service of the Second Battle of Ypres on Sunday evening last, the preacher for the occasion being the incumbent, Rev. J. B. Gibson. There were special psalms and lessons suitable to the occasion, a reminder of the dark days of the war. In his address the speaker said: "We commemorate a feat of arms performed by our own kith and kin which will live in history for ever. The wave of battle that fell on our soldiers at Ypres has baptized the Dominion into nationhood, Canada, through the sacrifice of her sons, glows with a new meaning before all the civilized world."
He referred to the outbreak of war and Britain's response to the distress calls of gallant little Belgium.

When war was declared, Canada decided to raise an expeditionary force to aid in upholding the honor of the Motherland. An offer of 20,000 men was made to and accepted by the British Government. As this news flashed across the Dominion the fires of patriotism were stirred and the

TORPID LIVER For over 4 Months

The duty of the liver is to prepare and secrete bile and serve as a filter to the blood, cleansing it of all impurities and poisons.
When the liver becomes lax, slow or torpid it is not working properly, and does not supply sufficient bile to thoroughly act on the bowels and carry off the waste products of the system, hence the bowels become clogged up, the bile gets into the blood, constipation sets in and liver troubles follow.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills quickly remove the secretions, clear away the waste and effete matter by acting directly on the liver, and making the bile pass through the bowels instead of allowing it to get into the blood, and cause so many troubles.
Mrs. Alice Nichol, Napanee, Ont., writes: "I was very badly run down, and had a torpid liver for four months. I tried several remedies, but got no relief. One day my husband brought me home a vial of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and before I had used half of it I was much better. I only used two vials, and am a different person today. I can safely recommend Laxa-Liver Pills to any one troubled with liver trouble."
Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The E. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

manhood of Canada hurried to arms, with the result that within two months an army of 33,000 men fully organized and equipped, was sent to the aid of the Motherland.

These were the men who were called upon to measure their valor and prowess with the German hordes in what is known as the Second Battle of Ypres—one of the bloodiest battles in the records of the British Army.

Poisoned by Gas
The speaker briefly recounted the incidents of the battle where poisonous gas was first used by the Germans, compelling the French, who occupied the trenches on the left of the Canadian Division, to retreat. The Canadians had to extend their line and were faced by at least four divisions of the enemy, supported by immensely heavy artillery. But the line never wavered. For five days and nights the battle raged on; at the end, Canada, with exactly half her troops killed and wounded, still stood a daunted facing the foe.
Sir Conan Doyle, commenting on this battle says:

Conan Doyle's Account
"Strong forces of the Germans had only five miles to go in order to cut the great nerve ganglion of Ypres out of the British system. They were provided with new and deadly devices of war. They were confronted by no one save a single division of what they looked upon as raw colonial militia. Yet of the five miles they could only accomplish two. It needs no vision of over-wrought men to see the doom of God in such episodes as that."

Three Lessons
Three great lessons were learned from this battle. First of all the great lesson of self-denial. The soldiers have re-learned for us the Christian principle of the Cross—that is the forsaking of everything for the sake of serving humanity, the laying down of life for the com-
